REGULATION I. A. D. 1828.

(SUPPLEMENT 1ST TO REGULATION XXVII OF 1827.)

110478

A REGULATION for rendering the designation and duties of the Officers employed under Regulation XXVII of 1827, in the Civil Administration of the Broach Collectorship, conformable to the Rules of the revised Code of Regulations, and declaring the substitution of the said Code for the Regulations issued previously to 1st January 1827.—PASSED by the Governor in Council of Bombay on the 17th of January 1828, corresponding with the 1st Maha Sood Sumbut or Vikramajet Era 1884, Salbahan 1749, Fusly 1237, Soorsun 1228, and 29th Jummadee Ulakhur 1243 of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is requisite to specify the degree in which the Rules of Regulation XXVII of 1827, in the Department of Civil Justice, are maintained in force under the operation of the revised Code of Regulations, and to declare the substitution of the said Code for the Regulations issued previously to 1st January 1827, the following rules have therefore been enacted, to have effect from the date of promulgation.

The rules of Regulation XXVII of 1827, prescribing the designation of the Register of Broach, his Assistants, and Ameens rescinded.

SECTION I.—Clause 1*st.*—So much of Regulation XXVII of 1827 as fixes the official designation of the Register stationed at Broach, as well as his Assistants, and Ameens, is hereby rescinded.

Clause

REGULATION I. A. D. 1828.

Register and Assistant to be stiled Senior and Junior Assistants.

Clause 2d.—The Register stationed at Broach, and his Assistants, will, in supersession of these designations, be stiled, according to their appointments, Senior and Junior Assistant Judge.

Ameens to be stiled Native Commissioners.

Clause 3d.—In like manner the designation of Ameen is changed for that of Native Commissioner.

Oath to be taken by Senior and Junior Assistants, and where.

SECTION II.—Clause 1st.—Previous to entering on the discharge of their respective duties, the Senior and Junior Assistant Judges shall take and subscribe the oaths prescribed by Clause 1st Section XXVIII Regulation II of 1827, the Senior Assistant in the Court of Surat or Kaira as may prove most convenient to him, and Junior Assistants, either before one of the same authorities, or the Senior Assistant stationed at Broach: in either case, the oath is to be administered in open Court.

Commissioners to take the prescribed solemn declaration before the Senior Assistant Judge at Broach.

Clause 2d.—In like manner a Commissioner shall take the solemn declaration prescribed by Section XL Regulation II of 1827, before the Senior Assistant Judge, in open Court, previously to exercising any of the functions of his office.

Provision for the appointment of law officers at Broach if necessary.

SECTION III.—If the duties of law officers within the Broach Collectorate cannot in the opinion of Government be conveniently performed by the established law officers of the Kaira and Surat Courts, law officers to be borne upon the establishment of the Kaira Court shall be attached to the Court of the Senior Assistant Judge of Broach, who will qualify in the same manner as other law officers, and perform the same duties in the Broach Collectorship.

The limit to the Civil jurisdiction of the Senior and Junior Assistant Judge abolished.

SECTION IV.—Clause 1st.—So much of Clauses 2d and 3d of Section IV of Regulation XXVII of 1827, as fixes the limit to the jurisdiction of the Senior and Junior Assistant Judges at Broach, is hereby rescinded.

Clause

Clause 2d.—The limit to the jurisdiction of the Assistant Judges at Broach is hereby declared to be the same as that assigned to such officers respectively in the revised Code of Regulations, consisting of the Regulations numbered from I to XXVI of 1827, and the powers of the Senior Assistant Judge to be therefore open to such extension as Government may authorize, under Regulation II of 1827 Section XXVIII and other similar enactments.

and constituted the same as for similar officers under the revised Code. Jurisdiction of Senior Assistant open to extension as in similar cases.

SECTION V.—Clause 1st.—So much of Clause 3d Section IV Regulation XXVII of 1827 as relates to Ameens, is hereby rescinded.

The rules in Clause 3d Section IV of Regulation XXVII of 1827 regarding ameens abolished.

Clause 2d.—The Commissioners acting in the Broach Collectorship will exercise the same jurisdiction as is assigned to those officers under the revised Code of Regulations, and will, when stationed elsewhere than in the Town of Broach, file original suits, as provided for in the revised Code, forwarding to the Senior Assistant Judge stationed at Broach such suits beyond their cognizance as may fall within his jurisdiction.

Commissioners in the Broach Collectorship have the same jurisdiction as elsewhere, under the revised Code; and forward to Broach Suits beyond their jurisdiction cognizable by the Senior Assistant Judge.

SECTION VI.—Nothing contained in Clause 2d Section IV Regulation XXVII of 1827 shall be held to prevent the presentation of an original suit, cognizable only by the Judge of the Zilla, at Broach to the Senior Assistant Judge, or elsewhere in the Broach Collectorship to the Commissioner of the place, which officers respectively shall, after noting on it the period of its presentation, forward it to the Zilla Judge.

The Senior Assistant Judge and Commissioner may receive and forward suits cognizable only by the Judge of the Zilla.

SECTION VII.—Clause 1st.—Whenever the Senior Assistant Judge may possess extended powers, as contemplated in Clause 2d Section IV of this Regulation, under the provisions of Clause 6th Section XXVIII Regulation II of 1827, appeals from the decisions of Commissioners and a Junior Assistant Judge within within the Broach Collectorship shall be received and admitted by him, in the same manner as appeals are received and admitted by Zilla Judges under Chapter XVI of Regulation IV of 1827, and the Judges of Surat and Kaira will, each for his own Zilla, exercise over the Senior Assistant Judge of Broach the control which the Suddur Dewannee Adawlut exercises over Zilla Judges by virtue of Regulation IV of 1827 Chapter XXI, the procedure directed by the Judge in any such case being deemed as if taken by him in his own Court, as regards the superior authority of the Suddur Dewannee Adawlut.

If the Senior Assistant Judge possess extended powers, he is competent to file Appeals from those subordinate to him.

Appeals from decisions of the Senior Assistant Judge to be presented at Broach or to the Judge before whom the same may be heard; in the former case the Senior Assistant will forward the same to the Judge.

Clause 2d.—Whenever a party is desirous of appealing from the decision of the Senior Assistant Judge stationed at Broach, he may present his petition of appeal either to the Zilla Judge, or to the Senior Assistant Judge of Broach with the prescribed security, who will transmit the same to the Zilla Judge within whose jurisdiction the case may be, under rules similar to those applicable to appeals from the decisions of Zilla Judges to the Suddur Dewannee Adawlut; and, when the Senior Assistant Judge may not be vested with the extended powers, which would enable him to hear appeals, the same course is to be pursued with respect to appeals from decisions of Commissioners or Junior Assistants.

If extended powers are not granted to the Senior Assistant, Appeals from the officers subordinate to him shall be received as above.

Suits or Appeals belonging to Broach judicial officers to be tried by no other subordinate authority.

SECTION VIII.—No original suit or appeal within the Broach Collectorship, cognizable by the judicial officers of that Collectorship, shall be tried by any other officer subordinate to the Zilla Judge.

Office for the Registry of deeds and other papers instituted at Broach for the Collectorship in the same manner as for Zillas.

SECTION IX.—Clause 1st.—The officers for the registry of deeds for the Zillas of Surat and Kaira shall not register deeds and papers for the Broach Collectorship, for which there shall be a separate registry office at Broach under the same rules and provisions as are prescribed by Regulation IX of 1827 for Zillas.

Clause

Clause 2d.—The Superintendence of the registers shall be vested in the Senior Assistant Judge, and, in his absence, in the Assistant of highest rank on the spot, agreeably to Regulation II of 1827, Section XXVIII Clause 3d.

Provision made for the superintendence of the office.

SECTION X.—The Senior Assistant Judge stationed at Broach shall be provided by the Judges of Surat and Kaira, with duplicates of the seals of their respective Courts, agreeably to the provisions of Section XVIII Regulation II of 1827, and these seals shall be used respectively according to the Zilla to which business belongs.

For the use of the authorities at Broach duplicates of the seals of the Kaira and Surat Zilla Civil Courts to be furnished.

SECTION XI.—It shall be competent for the Suddur Dewannee Adawlut, in all cases wherein it may see fit, to communicate direct with the Senior Assistant at Broach, without sending through the Judge of Kaira or Surat, as the case might require; but it shall forward, without delay, copies of each such communication to the Judge of the Zilla.

Direct communication when requisite may be resorted to between the Suddur Dewannee Adawlut and Senior Assistant at Broach, the Zilla Judge receiving copies of letters.

SECTION XII.—And whereas, in so far as Regulation XXVII of 1827 introduced no change, the old Regulations were preserved as the law, under that enactment, it is hereby enacted, that the revised Code of Regulations, consisting of the Regulations numbered from I to XXVI of 1827, supersedes and supplies the place of all Regulations issued prior to 1st January 1827, as in force under Regulation XXVII of 1827, equally as in all other respects.

The revised Code supplies the place of the former Regulations, as in force under Regulation XXVII of 1827, equally as in other respects.

REGULATION II. A. D. 1828.

(SUPPLEMENT 2D TO REGULATION XXVII OF 1827.)

A REGULATION for rendering the duties of the Officers of the department of Criminal Justice employed under Regulation XXVII of 1827, in the administration of the Broach Collectorship, conformable to the Rules of the revised Code of Regulations—PASSED by the Governor in Council of Bombay on the 17*th January* 1828, corresponding with the 1*st Maha Sood Sumbut or Vikramajet Era* 1884, Salbahan 1749, Fusly 1237, Soorsun 1228, and 29*th Jummadee Ulakhur* 1243 of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is requisite to specify the degree in which the rules of Regulation XXVII of 1827, in the Department of Criminal Justice, are maintained in force under the operation of the revised Regulations, the following Rules have therefore been enacted to have effect from the date of promulgation.

The oath of the Assistant Criminal Judges at Broach to be that prescribed by Regulation XIII and to be administered as in the Civil Department.

SECTION I.—Clause 1*st.*—The oath to be taken and subscribed by the Senior and Junior Assistant Criminal Judge stationed at Broach, previously to entering on the discharge of their respective duties, shall, in lieu of that formerly taken, be the oath prescribed by Clause 1st Section VIII Regulation XIII of 1827, and shall be administered as prescribed in Regulation I of 1828, Section II Clause 1st.

Duplicates of the Surat and Kaira Cri-

Clause 2*d.*—Duplicates of the seals of the Criminal Courts of Surat and Kaira shall be furnished to the Senior Assistant Criminal minal Seals to be deposited at Broach.

Criminal Judge stationed at Broach, and shall be used respectively according to the Zilla to which business belongs.

The Law officers of the Civil Department for Broach will also perform the duties of the Criminal Department.

SECTION II.—The law officers employed for the Broach Collectorate in the department of Civil Justice shall in like manner, after qualification as other law officers, perform the duties of their offices in the Criminal Department.

Powers of Senior and Junior Assistant Criminal Judges at Broach rendered the same as those of Assistants at Sudder Stations of Zillas, the Zilla Magistrate accordingly forwarding criminal cases to Broach.

SECTION III.—The Assistant Criminal Judges stationed at Broach shall, in addition to the powers vested in them by Section VI Regulation XXVII of 1827, exercise, within the limits of the Collectorship of Broach, the full power and authority of Senior and Junior Assistants, as described in Chapter II Regulation XIII of 1827; so much of Section V Regulation XXVII of 1827, as directs that the Collector as Magistrate shall forward cases beyond his cognizance to the Criminal Judge of Surat or Kaira, is also hereby rescinded, and those cases from the date of the promulgation of this Regulation will be forwarded to the Senior Assistant Criminal Judge stationed at Broach.

Under particular circumstances Sessions of Jail delivery may be held at Broach.

SECTION IV.—In the event of an extension of the powers of the Senior Assistant Criminal Judge stationed at Broach, by virtue of Clause 4th Section XIII Regulation XIII of 1827, it shall be competent to the Governor in Council to direct the periodical Sessions of the Court of Circuit to be held for the territory composing that Collectorate, under the same rules as for Zillas, in which case the Assistant Criminal Judge's powers shall be extended, so as to equal those of a Criminal Judge.

The Suddur Adawlut and Judge on Circuit may communicate direct with the Senior Assistant Criminal Judge as in the Civil Department.

SECTION V.—The Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut and the Judge on Circuit may communicate direct with the Senior Assistant Criminal Judge of Broach under the same rules as are provided for the department of Civil Justice in Regulation I of 1828, Section XI.

REGULATION III. A. D. 1828.

(SUPPLEMENT 1ST TO REGULATION XVIII. OF 1827.)

A REGULATION for subjecting to the Stamp duty certain plaints and other papers exempted therefrom under Regulation XVIII of 1827,—PASSED by the Governor in Council of Bombay on the 21*st day of May,* 1828, corresponding with 7*th Jest Sood or Vikramajit Era* 1884, Salbahan 1750, Fusly 1237, Soorsun 1228, and 6*th Zilkaud* 1243 of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the exemption from the Stamp duty, conferred by the provisions of Regulation XVIII of 1827, on plaints and other papers in original suits not exceeding Rupees (100) one hundred in amount, and on the additional paper required in any pleading beyond the Stamp material, has been found to occasion great inconvenience by the multiplication of unnecessary law-suits, and the needless prolongation of pleadings, the following rules have therefore been enacted for the purpose of removing those evils, and shall have effect, from the date of promulgation, through the territories subject to Regulation XVIII of 1827.

Papers in original Suits above one Rupee in amount subjected to the Stamp duty.

SECTION I.—Clause 1*st.*—So much of Regulation XVIII Section XV, Clause 1st Section XVIII, Clause 1st and Appendixes C. and D. to that Regulation, as exempts from the Stamp duty plaints and other papers in original suits above one Rupee, and not exceeding Rupees (100) one hundred in amount, is hereby rescinded, and plaints and other papers in these suits suits shall hereafter be subject to the same Stamp duty as is prescribed in the case of Appeals of the same amount in Appendixes C. and D. to Regulation XVIII.

Additions to the Stamped material used in pleading to be the Stamped material for an ordinary application, or (if it is of lower value) that of the Stamped material to which they are added.

Clause 2d.—In modification of Section XXI of Regulation XVIII of 1827, it is hereby enacted, that the material used, in addition to the prescribed stamped material in any pleading, shall be the stamped material of the value of an ordinary application to the Court trying the suit, or of the value of the stamped material to which it is added in case the latter should be of smaller amount.

(Revenue Branch.)

REGULATION IV. A. D. 1828.

(SUPPLEMENT 1ST TO REGULATION XXIX OF 1827.)

A REGULATION for bringing under the operation of the Stamp Regulations, the Bombay Territories in the Deckhan and Kandesh, including Sholapoor.—PASSED by the Honorable the Govenor in Council of Bombay on the 21st day of May 1828, corresponding with the 7th Jest Sood or Vikramajet Era 1884, Salbahan 1750, Fusly 1237, Soorsun 1228, and 6th Zilkaud 1243 of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by Section II Clause 1st of Regulation XXIX of 1827, the Bombay Territories in the Deckhan and Khandesh, including Sholapoor, are exempted from the provisions of Regulation XVIII and of any enactments relating to Stamps, and it being now judged expedient that the said exemptions should no longer continue in force, the following Rules are enacted:

Regulation XVIII and enactments relating to Stamps made applicable to the Deckhan and Khandesh, including Sholapoor.

SECTION I.—That the provisions of Regulation XVIII of 1827, and of any enactments relating to stamps, be brought into operation in the above named Territories from the date of promulgation of this Regulation.

(Branch of Civil Judicature.)

REGULATION V. A. D. 1828.

(SUPPLEMENT 2ND TO REGULATION XXIX. OF 1827.)

A REGULATION for prescribing Rules under which the jurisdiction of the Deputy Agent for the adjusting of Sirdars' claims, in the Deckhan, in the trial of suits against Sirdars shall be executed; and for defining, in certain instances, the powers of the Agent to hear and determine Appeals from his Deputy.—PASSED by the Honorable the Governor in Council at Bombay on the 21st day of May 1828, corresponding with the 7th Jest Sood or Vikramajit Era 1884, Salbahan 1750, Fusly 1237, Soorsun 1228, and 6th Zilkaud 1243 of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it has been deemed expedient to define the jurisdiction of the Deputy Agent for the adjusting of Sirdars' claims in the Deckhan, in the trial of suits against Sirdars, and also to explain the appellate powers to be exercised by the Agent in hearing and determining Appeals from his Deputy; and whereas it is essential, in order to preserve the whole arrangement by which such trials are conducted from the tendency it will have to fall into the ordinary routine of the Judicial system, to keep the duties and station of the Deputy Agent distinct from those of a Register, the following Rules have accordingly been enacted, to have effect from the date of promulgation.

Suits against Sirdars of the first class will

I.—Suits against Sirdars of the first class shall be tried by the Agent, under the Rules prescribed by the orders of the Government, be tried by the Agent, who may also direct his Deputy to try, if not exceeding 30,000 Rupees in amount.

ment, dated the 4th January 1827, or by such other Rules as the Governor in Council may be pleased to frame; but it shall, nevertheless, be competent to the Agent, whenever he deems it necessary, to commit the trial of any such suits to his Deputy, (whose proceedings will be guided by the Rules laid down for the observance of the Agent), provided they do not exceed in amount or value the sum of (30,000) Thirty Thousand Rupees.

Suits against Sirdars of 2d and 3d Classes will be tried by the Deputy, if not exceeding 20,000 Rupees, but Agent may refer to him for trial Suits above 20,000 Rupees and not exceeding 30,000 Rupees.

II.—Suits against Sirdars of the second and third classes, provided they do not exceed in amount or value the sum of (20,000) twenty thousand Rupees, shall be tried, in the first instance, by the Deputy Agent, in the manner directed in the preceding Section for the Agent's proceedings. But it shall also be competent for the Agent to refer, by express delegation, to his Deputy, for trial, any of the said suits which shall be in amount or value above (20,000) twenty thousand Rupees, and not exceeding (30,000) thirty thousand Rupees.

Suits tried by Deputy open to an Appeal to Agent.

Suits tried by Agent open to a Special Appeal to the Governor in Council, or Suddur Adawlut.

III.—Every suit tried by the Deputy Agent shall be open to an Appeal to the Agent, and every suit tried by the Agent, originally or in Appeal, shall be open to an Appeal or a Special Appeal to the Governor in Council, or to the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut, according to the rank of the parties, as provided for by the Orders of the Government, before mentioned; the rules for admitting Special Appeals being applied to all reclaimations from decisions of the Agent, in Appeals against Decrees of his Deputy.

Sixty days allowed for preferring Appeal to Agent and 180 days to the Governor in Council or the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut.

IV.—A period of sixty days is allowed, for preferring an Appeal to the Agent from his Deputy; and six months or 180 days are allowed for bringing an Appeal or a Special Appeal against a decision of the Agent, to the Governor in Council or the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut.

(Revenue Branch.)

REGULATION VI. A. D. 1828.

(SUPPLEMENT 2D TO REGULATION XVII. OF 1827.)

A REGULATION for extending, in the same manner as in Suits before the Courts of Civil Judicature, Stamps to suits cognizable by Collectors under the operation of Chapter VIII Regulation XVII of 1827, or any other now in force,— PASSED by the Hon'ble the Governor in Council of Bombay on the 18*th day of June* 1828, corresponding with the 6*th First Assad Sood Sumbut or Vikramajet Era* 1884, Salbahan 1750, Fusly 1238, Soorsun 1229, and 5*th Zilhuz* 1243 of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it has been deemed expedient to extend the provisions of Regulation XVIII of 1827, to suits cognizable by Collectors, under the operation of Chapter VIII Regulation XVII of 1827, or any other now in force, in the same manner as in suits before the Courts of Civil Judicature, the following rules have in consequence been enacted to take effect from the date of promulgation.

Stamp Regulations extended to Suits before Collectors, in the same manner as now in force in regard to suits before Civil Courts.

SECTION I.—Suits cognizable before Collectors, under the operation of Chapter VIII. Regulation XVII of 1827, shall be subject to the same rules, in regard to stamps, as are in force for the Courts of Civil Judicature.

(Branch of Civil Judicature.)

REGULATION VII. A. D. 1828.

(SUPPLEMENT 1ST TO REGULATION II. A. D. 1827.)

A REGULATION instituting a Court of Appeal for the Zillas comprised in the Province of Guzerat subordinate to the Supreme Civil Jurisdiction of the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut,—PASSED by the Honorable the Governor in Council of Bombay on the 20th of August 1828, corresponding with the 10*th Shravun Sood Sumbut or Vikramajet Æra* 1884, Salbahan 1750, Fusly 1238, Soorsun 1229, and 8*th Suffer* 1244 of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Governor in Council has resolved, in the exercise of the power vested in him by Regulation II. of 1827, Section I Clause 1st, to remove the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut from Surat to the Presidency, for the purpose of affording facility of Appeal to that Court from the territories in the Dekhan and Zillas of the North and South Conkan, and whereas it has thereupon been deemed expedient to institute, subject to the Supreme Jurisdiction of the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut, a Court of Appeal for the Zillas comprised in the Province of Guzerat, the following rules are therefore enacted, to take effect from the 1st November 1828.

A Court of Appeal constituted for Guzerat subject to the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut.

SECTION I.—There shall be a Provincial Court of Appeal for the Zillas comprised in the Province of Guzerat, the seat of which shall, on being fixed or changed, be made known by proclamation issuing from Government. The said Court shall be vested with civil jurisdiction over the above Zillas, and all authorities therein, subject to the supreme civil jurisdiction of the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut, the duties and powers of which, except as transferred to the Provincial Court of Appeal for Guzerat and otherwise modified by this Regulation, remain the the same as heretofore.

To consist of three Judges.

SECTION II.—The Court shall consist of three Judges, to be denominated "First," "Second," "Third."

Its Seal.

SECTION III.—The Court of Appeal shall use a circular seal, two inches in diameter, on which shall be inscribed in English, Persian, and Guzeratee languages "The Court of Appeal for the Province of Guzerat."

Oaths of the Judges.

SECTION IV.—Each Judge previously to exercising any of the functions of his office shall, with the requisite alteration of official designation, take and subscribe before the Governor in Council, or any person whom he may commission to administer it, the oath of a Judge of the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut as contained in Appendix A. to Regulation II. A. D. 1827.

Duties of the Court the same with respect to the Guzerat Zilla Courts as the duties of the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut, under previous Regulations except as excepted.

SECTION V.—Clause 1st.—The appellate and other powers, duties, and functions of the Court of Appeal, for, in, and over the Zillas of the Province of Guzerat, and all authorities therein, shall be the same as are prescribed in the Regulations heretofore enacted for the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut, and shall be exercised and performed in the same manner, excepting, as subject and subordinate to the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut, and where otherwise enacted to the contrary:

All subordinate authorities to conduct themselves accordingly.

Clause 2d.—And all authorities subject to the Court of Appeal shall obey the said Court, and shall perform all acts in conformity with and in respect to its jurisdiction, and provide and prepare, in the performance of their duties, all Appeals, returns, reports, and whatever else, for the said Court, as are required by the Regulations to be performed, provided, and prepared by them respectively, for the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut.

Application of previous Regulations to the Court of Appeal's jurisdiction.

Clause 3d.—And for elucidation it is hereby declared that the Court of Appeal in using, quoting, or referring to the Regulations hitherto enacted in passing orders in the execution of its jurisdiction or authority, shall do so where applicable, with the same effect, and it shall be so received by all authorities as if the words "Court of Appeal" were in the place of "Suddur Dewanee Adawlut."

Required transfer of a portion of the Suddur Adawlut's records to the Court of Appeal.

Clause 4th.—Such portion of its records relating to Guzerat as the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut may deem fit, shall be made over by that Court to the Guzerat Court of Appeal, together with all such Appeals and other business within the jurisdiction of the latter Court as may be undecided and unfinished on the commencement of the operation of this Regulation.

Returns and reports from the Guzerat Zillas to be made through the Court of Appeal.

SECTION VI.—All returns and reports required by the Regulations to be made by the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut, to Government, shall, as respects the Province of Guzerat, be made by the Provincial Court to the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut, and that Court will forward the same whenever requisite to Government.

Appeals to be tried first by one Judge, who may confirm the decree appealed from:

SECTION VII.—All Appeals to the Court of Appeal, shall, in the first instance, be referred by the Court to one of it's Judges, who shall try the same and pass judgment therein, provided such judgment confirm the decree appealed from.

Or disapproving therefrom may refer the Suit with his opinion to the other two Judges.

Clause 2d.—But if the Judge is not prepared to confirm his decree, he shall record his sentiment and opinion on the case, and refer it to the decision of a Court composed of the other two Judges.

When his opinion is reckoned as a vote.

Clause 3d.—The opinion of the single Judge shall be received as a vote, and the decision be passed by the majority.

In other matters the act of two concurring Judges is that of the Court: where two Judges differ, the opinion of the third must be taken.

SECTION VIII.—For other purposes than the trial of Appealed Suits two Judges, or three, shall constitute a Court: if two Judges only sit and they concur, their act shall be the act of the Court, but if they differ, the opinion of the other shall be requisite, and the decision shall be according to the majority.

A register may be appointed: his duties how performed when there is no such officer.

SECTION IX.—If the Court shall have a Register, his oath shall be the same as that of the Register to the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut with the requisite alteration of official designation, and his duties shall be the same as those of that officer; when there is no Register, his duties shall be performed by the Judges according to such arrangement as they may find convenient.

Law and ministerial officers, their qualifications and duties.

SECTION X.—The Court of Appeal shall have the same description of law and ministerial officers under the same rules as are prescribed in the Regulations for the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut to perform the several duties therein enacted; and such officers, as are required by Regulation to do so, shall, previously to entering upon the duties of their respective offices, take and subscribe in open Court the solemn declarations corresponding with those contained in Appendix C. to Regulation II of 1827.

General Rules of practice and procedure to be under the direction of the Suddur Adawlut.

SECTION XI.—Rules of general practice and procedure, the observance of holidays, and other similar matters, shall be issued by the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut to the Guzerat Court of Appeal, and through that Court to the Zilla Courts of Guzerat.

The suspension of law officers of Zilla Courts referred through the Court of Appeal to the Suddur Adawlut.

SECTION XII.—The suspension of law officers in the Zilla Courts of the Province of Guzerat under the Regulations shall be referred to the Court of Appeal in the first instance, and then by that Court to the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut, which Court will thereafter act as is provided in the Regulations.

Court of Appeal's power over its own native officers and those of the Guzerat Zilla Courts.

SECTION XIII.—The Court of Appeal shall have the same power over the Officers of the Courts subject to its jurisdiction, and over its own officers, as is vested in the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut; but the nomination, suspension and dismission of the Nazir of the Court of Appeal, must be reported to the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut.

Appointment, suspension and dismission of Native Commissioners.

SECTION XIV.—Clause 1st.—Native Commissioners shall, in the province of Guzerat, receive their commissions from the Court of Appeal in the manner provided in the Regulations. The suspension of a Native Commissioner may be sanctioned by the Court of Appeal according to the Regulations, but for the dismission of such officers a report must be made to the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut, and the sanction of that Court be obtained.

Their numbers.

Clause 2d.—The number of Native Commissioners, with the other provision of Clause 3d Section XXXVII Regulation II. A. D. 1827, shall, in the province of Guzerat, on any alteration being required, be reported to the Court of Appeal, and by that Court to the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut, whence the final sanction, in the manner prescribed in the Regulation, will be received.

Pleaders.

SECTION XV.—The qualifications of Pleaders in the Courts of the Province of Guzerat shall be determined by the Court of Appeal, in the same manner as is provided to be done by the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut, and each Pleader so found qualified shall be furnished with a Sunnud under the seal of the Court.

Provision in case of diffe-

SECTION XVI.—In all instances in matters not expressly rence of opinion on a Regulation between the Court of Appeal and a Zilla Judge.

placed at the discretion of the Court of Appeal under the Regulations, where a Zilla Judge may consider a precept or order issued by the Provincial Court of Appeal to be contrary to or unwarranted by the Regulations, he may suspend execution of the same, and state his objections to that Court, till the receipt of a second precept, which, if confirming the first, must be executed without further delay; but if his objections remain, he may request that the matter may be referred to the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut, which the Provincial Court shall accordingly do (unless convinced by the objections so further offered) with copies of the precepts and returns, and all other documents necessary for elucidating the circumstances of the case, and the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut shall thereupon issue final orders or refer the question to Government for decision, as may be required.

Jurisdiction of the Suddur Adawlut over the Court of Appeal and through that Court over the Zilla Courts of Guzerat.

SECTION XVII.—The jurisdiction of the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut, except when otherwise specially enacted, is the same over the Guzerat Court of Appeal as by the Regulations heretofore enacted it exercised over the Zilla Courts of Guzerat, with respect to which Courts its superior jurisdiction (which is in no way to interfere with the exclusive appellate jurisdiction in the first instance of the Court of Appeal) will be henceforward exercised through the medium of the Court of Appeal.

The Junior Member of Council is Chief Judge of the Suddur Adawlut, but only for the purpose of completing a competent Court.

SECTION XVIII.—The junior Member of Council shall be the Chief Judge of the Court of Suddur Dewanee Adawlut, but that no necessary addition may be made to the extensive duties of his higher Office, his functions as Chief Judge shall be limited to his officiating as such, when a competent Court for the decision of the suit or other matter under consideration cannot otherwise be had.

SECTION XIX.—Clause 1*st.*—All decisions of the Court of Appeal are open to Appeal to the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut when that Court reverses, alters, or modifies the judgment of the Zilla Court.

A regular appeal to the Suddur Adawlut lies from the Court of Appeal when it's decree alters the decree appealed against.

Clause 2*d.*—But where the decision of the Court of Appeal confirms the judgment of the Zilla Court, a regular Appeal shall not lie to the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut, unless the amount at issue in property or damages exceeds Rupees 5,000.

SECTION XX.—A Special Appeal is open in all cases from the decision of the Court of Appeal to the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut, under the rules in force in regard to Special Appeals.

Special Appeals may be granted.

SECTION XXI.—The manner of admission of an Appeal to the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut, the proceedings to be adopted, the notices to be given, the process to be followed in taking security, as in either enforcing or staying the execution of a Decree, or in any other matter, shall be the same as is provided in the Regulations in respect to Appeals from the Zilla Courts to the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut.

Rules respecting appeals from the Court of Appeal.

SECTION XXII.—Precepts shall issue from the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut to the Court of Appeal for the execution of its process, orders and decree in all matters arising in the Zillas of Guzerat, in the same manner as is prescribed in the Regulations to Zilla Courts.

And for process to the Suddur Adawlut.

SECTION XXIII.—Two Judges of the Court of Appeal shall have authority under the circumstances described in Section XVI to delay execution of a precept issued by the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut, pending a reference to that Court, whose final precept thereupon issued must be obeyed without further delay.

The Court of Appeal may in particular cases suspend execution of a precept of the Suddur Adawlut, but must obey a second precept without further delay.

Reports &c. furnished to Government by the Suddur Adawlut.

SECTION XXIV.—Reports and copies of proceedings will be furnished by the Suddur Dewanee Adawlut to Government, in conformity with the provision of Regulation II of 1827 Section VIII, the same being procured from the Zilla Courts of Guzerat through the General Court of Appeal.

REGULATION VIII. A. D. 1828.

SUPPLEMENT 1ST TO REGULATION XIII OF 1827.

A REGULATION instituting a Provincial Court of Circuit for the Zillas comprised in the Province of Guzerat, subject to the Supreme Criminal Jurisdiction of the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut upon the removal of that Court to the Presidency, and providing for the charge of Jails where there is no Criminal Judge or Assistant Criminal Judge.—PASSED by the Governor in Council of Bombay on the 20th of August 1828, corresponding with the 10*th Shravun Sood Sumbut or Vikramajit Æra* 1884, Salbahan 1750, Fusly 1238, Soorsun 1229, and 8th Suffer 1244 of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it has been judged expedient, in order to facilitate the business of the Courts of Circuit, and to give more efficiency to the powers of supervision vested in those Courts, and in view to the attainment of a more complete administration of criminal justice, to institute a Provincial Court of Circuit for the Zillas comprised in the province of Guzerat subject to the Supreme Criminal jurisdiction of the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut; and whereas provision is required for the charge of Jails where there is no Criminal Judge or Assistant Criminal Judge, the following rules are therefore enacted to take effect from the 1st November 1828.

Appointment of a Provincial Court of Circuit for Guzerat.

SECTION I.—There shall be a Provincial Court of Circuit for the Zillas comprised in the province of Guzerat.

Its jurisdiction.

SECTION II.—This Court shall have criminal jurisdiction over the above zillas and all authorities therein, subject to the supreme criminal jurisdiction of the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut, the duties and power of which, except as transferred to the Provincial Court of Circuit for Guzerat and otherwise modified by this Regulation, remain the same as heretofore.

Its Judges and officers: their duties.

SECTION III.—The seat of the Provincial Court of Circuit shall, on being fixed or changed, be made known by proclamation issuing from Government; the Court shall be composed of the same Judges as the Provincial Court of Appeal, the officers of which, (both European and Native), shall perform also, in the Criminal Court, their respective functions, in the discharge of which they shall be subject to the same rules and responsibility as in their civil capacities, and the denomination and rank of each Judge, or officer, shall correspond with that which he bears in the Civil Court.

It's Seal.

SECTION IV.—The Court shall use a circular seal two inches in diameter, on which shall be inscribed in the English, Guzeratee, and Persian languages and characters, "The Provincial Court of Circuit for Guzerat."

Qualification of the Judges and officers.

SECTION V.—Each Judge shall, previously to exercising any of the functions of his office, take and subscribe before the Governor in Council, or in open Court, the Oath described in Appendix A to Regulation XIII of 1827, with such alteration, in respect of designation, as is requisite, and the Register, if one shall be appointed, and the law and ministerial officers, shall in like manner take, in open Court, the oaths and solemn declarations respectively prescribed in the said Regulation for such officers of the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut.

Sitting of the Court.

SECTION VI.—The provisions of Regulation XIII of 1827 votes of the Judges and powers of a single Judge.

Section XXVIII on the sitting of the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut, and the votes of the Judges when not more than three in number, and the power of a single Judge, shall constitute the rule on those subjects for the Provincial Court of Circuit.

One Judge differing with the others on an order or enactment may require a reference to the Suddur Adawlut.

Section VII.—When there may be a difference of opinion upon any rule, order or interpretation of a Regulation, any Judge of the Court may require a reference to be made, the same being accompanied by the minutes and opinions of the other Judges, to the Court of Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut for its final decision, or a reference to Government, as the case may require.

Duties and powers of the Provincial Court of Circuit.

Section VIII.—Clause 1st.—The duties, functions and powers of the Provincial Court, for, in, and over the Zillas of the Province of Guzerat, shall be the same as are prescribed in the Regulations hitherto enacted for the Court of Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut, and shall be exercised in the same manner, excepting as subject and subordinate to the Court of Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut, and where otherwise excepted.

And application of previous regulations to it's jurisdiction.

Clause 2d.—And it is hereby declared for elucidation, that the Provincial Court in using, quoting or referring to the Regulations hitherto enacted, in passing orders in the exercise of its jurisdiction, or authority, or otherwise, shall do so, where applicable, with the same effect, and it shall be received by all authorities subordinate to it, as if the words "Provincial Court" were in the place of "Court of Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut."

Certain references by Criminal Judges in Guzerat to be made to the Provincial Court of Circuit.

Section IX.—Cases referred by Criminal Judges under Clause 2d Section XIII Regulation XIII of 1827, as also under Clause 4th Section XVI Regulation XVII, shall, in the Province of Guzerat, be referred to the Provincial Court. In the same manner all other references, by whatever authority, required to be made to the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut, shall, in the Province of Guzerat, be made to the Provincial Court, except where enacted to the contrary.

References from the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut to Government to be made in the first instance for Guzerat by the Provincial Court of Circuit to the Suddur Adawlut.

SECTION X.—All references and applications, which by the Regulations are required to be made to Government by the Court of Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut, shall, for the Province of Guzerat, be made by the Provincial Court to the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut, which Court will make such references to Government, where by Regulation it is required to do so, with its opinion, and the instructions and orders of Government thereon will, when received, be issued by the Court of Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut to the Provincial Court.

Certain acts of Criminal Jurisdiction performed by the Provincial Court of Circuit, others by the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut alone.

SECTION XI.—The measures provided and described in Section XXXVIII Regulation XII of 1827, shall for the province of Guzerat be sanctioned by the Provincial Court, but those of Section XXXIX of the same Regulation, and the Proclamation therein provided, shall be issued by the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut alone.

Circuit for Guzerat how performed, provision as to the stay of the Judge at each station or other place.

SECTION XII.—Clause 1st.—The Circuits for the Province of Guzerat shall commence on the 15th March and 1st November in each year, and shall be performed by the two Junior Judges of the Provincial Court of Circuit, in such order as the Judges of that Court, with the concurrence of the Sudder Foujdaree Adawlut, may arrange: the Judge on Circuit shall exercise the same functions, and powers, and shall act and perform their duties in the same manner and to the same extent, except where otherwise enacted, as the Regulations hitherto enacted prescribe for the Court of Circuit held by a Puisne Judge of the Court of Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut; but the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut shall have authority to regulate, as it may deem expedient, the period during which the Judge on Circuit shall remain at each respective Station or other place where a Session is held: the reference also to Government specified in Regulation XIII of 1827, Section V Clause 1st, will be made by the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut.

Zilla Criminal Court and other authorities how subordinate to the Provincial Court of Circuit.

Clause 2d.—All authorities subordinate to the Provincial Court shall duly obey, perform all acts, and provide and prepare, in the performance of their several duties, all cases and calendars, returns and reports for the Judges of Circuit of that Court, in the same manner as is provided in the Regulations for the Puisne Judges of the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut, when on Circuit.

Number of the Sessions—how they are held.

SECTION XIII.—The number and periodical recurrence of Sessions in the year for the respective Zillas subject to the Provincial Court of Circuit for Guzerat, and the manner in which they are to be held, are as prescribed in the Regulation hitherto enacted; the Sessions will be held at Surat by the Judges of the Provincial Court in rotation, and elsewhere by one of the Puisne Judges of that Court.

Records of the Judge of Circuit to be deposited with those of the Provincial Court, and deemed to form a part of them.

SECTION XIV.—The minutes of proceedings and records of the Judge on Circuit, with all papers and documents therein entered, shall, with the exception of such as require to be transmitted to the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut, be forwarded, under Regulation XIII of 1827 Section XXIII Clause 1st, to the Provincial Court of Circuit, and shall be at all times open to its inspection and use equally with its own records, of which they shall be deemed to constitute a part.

Certain sentences by the Judge on Circuit to be referred to the SECTION XV.—Sentences passed by the Judges on Circuit of the Provincial Court, of death, transportation or imprisonment for life, shall be still referred, as is provided under Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut.

Clause 3d Section XXI Regulation XIII of 1827, to the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut.

The Provincial Court may refer other sentences passed by the Judge on Circuit to the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut.

SECTION XVI.—When the Provincial Court of Circuit shall consider any sentence of a Judge of Circuit, which has not been referred to the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut, to require to be mitigated or annulled, it shall forward the case with its reports and opinion to the Court of Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut to be confirmed, mitigated, or annulled, as to that Court shall seem fit, agreeably to the provision of Section XIX.

Difference in opinion between local authorities and the Judge on Circuit or Provincial Court with respect to orders how disposed of.

SECTION XVII.—In reference to the powers of the Judge on Circuit over the proceedings of Criminal Judges and Zilla Magistrates, as provided in Regulation XIII Section XVII Clause 3d, it is hereby declared, that when, after reference may have been made to the Provincial Court, the Criminal Judge, or Zilla Magistrate, shall still see objection to carrying an order into effect, he may request that the matter may be referred to the Court of Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut, which the Provincial Court, if not convinced by the objections, shall accordingly do, and the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut shall thereupon issue final orders, or refer the question to Government for decision, as may be required.

The report required under Clause 2d Section XII Reg. XIII of 1827, to be made as heretofore to the Suddur Adawlut, though the cases may arise in Guzerat.

SECTION XVIII.—The report required under Clause 2d Section XII Regulation XIII of 1827, to be made to the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut, on a case occurring of peculiarity of circumstance, which the Criminal Judge thinks should be brought before a higher tribunal than his own, shall be still made to that Court, though arising in the Province of Guzerat.

The Suddur Adawlut may call for and investigate Pro-

SECTION XIX.—The Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut shall have authority at all times to call for proceedings of the Provincial

Court of Circuit, and of any of its Judges, to mitigate or annul, as it may deem fit, any sentence passed by any one of the said Judges, and to submit to Government, in the mode described in Regulation XIII of 1827 Section XXXI Clause 1st, sentences of the Provincial Court of Circuit, which, in the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut's opinion, may require to be mitigated or annulled.

ceedings of the Provincial Court and of Judges on Circuit; recommend to Government to mitigate or annul Sentences passed by the former, and itself mitigate or annul those passed by the latter.

SECTION XX.—Warrants issued by the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut for the execution of sentences passed by the said Court on cases from the Province of Guzerat, shall be addressed to the Criminal Judge, but be forwarded through the Provincial Court of Circuit; and the same rule shall be observed in notifying to the Criminal Judge a case of pardon or mitigation of punishment, granted by the Governor in Council, or when a prisoner is acquitted by the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut.

Warrants of the Suddur Adawlut and orders of Government in cases of pardon or mitigation of punishment how issued.

SECTION XXI.—Clause 1*st*.—The Provincial Court of Circuit shall furnish to the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut, or to the Governor in Council, as directed, returns and information on any subject within its cognizance, also copies of its proceedings or any documents on its records that may be called for.

The Provincial Court to furnish to the Suddur Adawlut and Government all requisite returns and copies of proceedings.

Clause 2*d*.—The Provincial Court of Circuit shall make the report directed by Clause 3d Section XXXIII Regulation XIII of 1827, to the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut for the Zillas subject to its authorities.

General reports to be furnished to the Suddur Adawlut:

Clause 3*d*.—The Provincial Court shall make such periodical returns relating to the business transacted by it, or by the Courts subordinate to it, as the Court of Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut may direct, the same having been sanctioned by Government.

as also periodical returns.

Reports and returns to be furnished to the Provincial Court by subordinate authorities.

Clause 4th.—The Zilla Magistrates and Criminal Judges subordinate to the Provincial Court of Circuit will make such periodical returns to it as they now do to the Court of Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut, and such further reports as the Provincial Court of Circuit may from time to time direct, the same, if periodical, having been sanctioned by Government.

Rules under which, where there is no Criminal Judge or Assistant Criminal Judge, the European Revenue officer of the Collectorship, or place, may have charge of the Jail.

SECTION XXII.—In modification of the rule on that point contained in Regulation XIII of 1827 Chapter VII, it is hereby enacted, that in a Collectorship or other division of territory superintended by an European Revenue Officer where there may be no Criminal Judge, or Assistant Criminal Judge, it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council to place any public Jail or Jails, under the provisions of the above quoted chapter, in the charge of the Magisterial Department; in which case persons apprehended and convicts duly sentenced to imprisonment by the officers of the Magisterial Department shall be there imprisoned, and any further required use in the confinement of prisoners may be made of the Jail or Jails under the directions of Government, or of the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut, which may be conformable to practice in respect to Zilla Jails.

REGULATION XII. A. D. 1828.

(SUPPLEMENT 1ST OF REGULATION XII. A. D. 1827.)

A REGULATION for giving to Assistant Criminal Judges, where expedient, when stationed elsewhere than at the Suddur station of a Zilla, the Police powers within the limits of the Town where he may be stationed; and for empowering Zilla Magistrates to refer cases to such Assistant Criminal Judge, instead of the Criminal Judge.—PASSED by the Governor in Council of Bombay on the 20th of August 1828, corresponding with the 10*th Shravun Sood Sumbut or Vikramajet Æra* 1884, Salbahan 1750, Fusly 1238, Soorsun 1229, and 8th Suffer 1244 of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it may be deemed expedient to vest the police jurisdiction of Towns where an Assistant Criminal Judge is stationed elsewhere than at the Suddur station of a Zilla, in that officer, and it may be further desirea ble to direct the Zilla Magistrate to refer to such Assistant Criminal Judge all Criminal cases beyond his immediate jurisdiction, the following rules are passed to have effect from the date of promulgation.

Police powers may be vested in Assistant Criminal Judges in Towns when stationed in districts.

I. Whenever an Assistant Criminal Judge is stationed elsewhere than at the Suddur station of the Zilla, it shall be competent for Government, if deemed expedient, to direct him to take charge of the Police of the Town where he is stationed, under the same rules as are provided for Criminal Judges at the seat of the Zilla Court.

REGULATION XII. A. D. 1828.

Zilla Magistrates to refer cases beyond his own immediate jurisdiction to Assistant Criminal Judges when stationed in the districts.

II. Whenever an Assistant Criminal Judge is stationed elsewhere than at the Suddur station of the zilla, the Magistrate of the zilla shall refer all criminal cases beyond his own immediate jurisdiction to such Assistant Criminal Judge, when they may arise within the limits of the Assistant Criminal Judge's local jurisdiction.

REGULATION XIII. A. D. 1828.

(Supplement 1st to Regulation IX. of 1827.)

A REGULATION for enabling Assistant Judges, when expedient, to keep the Registers prescribed by Regulation II of 1827, when stationed in the districts.—PASSED by the Governor in Council of Bombay on the 20th of August 1828, corresponding with the 10*th Shravun Sood Sumbut or Vikramajet Æra* 1884, Salbahan 1750, Fusly 1238, Soorsun 1229, and 8th Suffer 1244 of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS for the convenience of the community within the limits of the Civil Jurisdiction which may be placed under an Assistant Judge, by virtue of Clause 2d Section XXVIII Regulation II 1827, it is judged adviseable that Government, if it may so deem it expedient, shall be empowered to direct that the Registers of Deeds, and General Register, established by Regulation IX of 1827, be kept by the Assistant Judge, for the whole or any part of his jurisdiction; the following rules have therefore been enacted, to have effect from the date of promulgation.

Registry of deeds &c. may be confided to Assistant Judges, if stationed in the districts.

When an Assistant Judge is stationed elsewhere than at the seat of the Zilla Court, under the provisions of Clause 2d Section XXVIII Regulation II of 1827, the Registers for deeds and other documents, established by Regulation IX of 1827, may, if the Governor in Council shall so determine, be kept by the Assistant Judge, for the whole or any portion of his jurisdiction, as Government may direct.

REGULATION XIV. A. D. 1828.

A REGULATION for levying a toll at the Sion Causeway, made with the Sanction of the Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and with the approbation of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India,—PASSED by the Governor in Council of Bombay on the 3d of September 1828, corresponding with the 10*th Shravun Vud Sumbut or Vikramajet Æra* 1884, Salbaham 1750, Fusly 1238, Soorsun 1229, and 22d Suffer 1244 of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Government of Bombay has, at considerable expence to the Hon'ble Company, widened the Causeway which connects the Islands of Bombay and Salsette, so as greatly to improve the said communication in point of safety and convenience to the public, and it has in consequence been deemed just and expedient to levy a toll on the passage of Vehicles of various descriptions, and of Horses and Tatoos, Horned Cattle, Sheep and Goats, over the said Causeway, the following rules have therefore been enacted by the authority of the Governor in Council, with the sanction of the Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and with the approbation of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, and shall have effect from the 1st of November next.

Rates of toll established for the Sion Causeway.

SECTION I.—The following rates of toll are hereby authorized and directed to be levied at the Sion Causeway.

On four wheeled Carriages on springs, of every description, ½ Rupee each going, and the same returning.

On two wheeled Carriages on springs, exclusive of Native Hackeries, ¼ Ditto Ditto.

On Saddle or Harness Horses, ½ Anna each Ditto Ditto.

On Native Hackeries on springs, 1 Anna each Ditto Ditto.

On labour Carts and labour Hackeries, without springs, 1 quarter of an Anna each Ditto Ditto.

On Tatoos of Burden and on Cattle of every description, in the proportion of, 1 Anna for eight Ditto Ditto.

On Sheep and Goats, in the proportion of, 1 Anna per score going, and the same returning.

To be levied at Sion by the Collectors Officers:

SECTION II.—Clause 1st.—The Collector of the toll shall be placed under the superintendence of the Collector of Bombay, and the toll shall be levied at Sion by such officer or officers on the Collector's establishment as he may appoint to that duty, for the due execution of which they shall be liable to the same responsibilities as would attach to them in the Collection of the land revenue.

Who, in case of non-payment, may detain property and demand aid in executing their duty from the police.

Clause 2d.—In case of non-payment of the toll, the Collector's Officers are authorized to stop the property on which it is chargeable, or so much of it as may be adequate to the discharge of the amount due, and all police officers are required, when called upon, to aid the Collector's Officers in the execution of their duty, and are hereby vested with the powers for that purpose as they possess in the exercise of their ordinary duties in the police.

Property so detained may be sold to pay the toll, and moderate fine for contumacious non-payment.

Clause 3d.—If, when property is detained by virtue of the preceding Clause, the toll remains undischarged for 24 hours, the case shall be brought before the Collector, if he be a Justice of Peace for the Island of Bombay, and the Collector, or other Justice of Peace, shall have authority, after due investigation had, to cause payment to be made of the toll which may be due, together with such moderate fine not exceeding Rupees Five (5), in cases of contumacious non-payment, as may appear expedient, out of the proceeds of the property so detained, the sale of which shall be made under the warrant of a Justice, to be issued as prescribed in similar cases in Regulation XIX A. D. 1827 Section XIV Clause 1st.

REGULATION XV. A. D. 1828.

(SUPPLEMENT 2D TO REGULATION XXI OF 1827.)

A REGULATION for modifying the Provisions in force regarding the duty levied on Tobacco imported into, or exported from, the Zillas Subordinate to the Presidency of Bombay.—PASSED by the Governor in Council at Bombay on the 10th of September 1828, corresponding with the 1st Bhadrapud Sood Sumbut or Vikramajit Æra 1884, Salbahan 1750, Fusly 1238, Soorsun 1229, and 29th Suffer 1244 of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it has been deemed expedient to revise the existing rate of duty levied on Tobacco imported into, or exported from the Zillas Subordinate to the Presidency of Bombay, the following rules have therefore been enacted by the authority of the Honorable the Governor in Council, to have effect from the date of promulgation.

Clause 3d Section I of Regulation XXXIII of 1827 rescinded.

SECTION I.—Clause 3d of Section I Regulation XXXIII of 1827, imposing a duty of three Rupees per Bombay maund on the export or import of Tobacco at every Port within the Zillas subordinate to Bombay, in addition to the established Customs at such Port respectively, is hereby rescinded.

Duty on Tobacco at Subordinates reduced to ½ Rupee per maund.

SECTION II.—A duty of half a Rupee per Bombay maund, payable once, either on export or import, whichever may first take place, shall be levied on Tobacco at every Port within the Zillas subordinate to Bombay, in addition to the established Customs at such Port, respectively.

REGULATION XVI. A. D. 1828.

SUPPLEMENT 3D TO REGULATION XIII. A. D. 1827.

A REGULATION for establishing subsidiary Jails where necessary.—PASSED by the Governor in Council of Bombay on the 24th of September 1828, corresponding with the 1st Bhadrapud Vud Sumbut or Vikramajit Æra 1884, Salbahan 1750, Fusly 1838, Soorsun 1829, and 14th Rubee-ul-avul 1243 of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it is expedient, in extensive Zillas, that Subsidiary Jails should be established where required, the following rules have therefore been enacted, to have effect from the date of promulgation.

Subsidiary Jails may by order of Government be established in any Zilla,

SECTION I.—Independent of the Criminal Jail in each Zilla, provided for in Chapter VII Regulation XIII 1827, the Governor in Council, whenever he may deem it advisable, may by an order direct one or more subsidiary Jails to be established in any Zilla.

And placed under charge of a Public officer.

SECTION II.—Subsidiary Jails shall be placed under the charge of such Public Officer, as may be most convenient, for its necessary superintendence.

The management of them to be under the same rules as the Zilla Jail and used as Government may direct.

SECTION III.—The management of Subsidiary Jails shall in every respect be under the same rules, so far as circumstances will admit, as the Zilla Criminal Jail, and be used in such manner as Government may direct.

When established in a Zilla the order to be sent to the Judge, through the Suddur Adawlut.

SECTION IV.—Whenever a Subsidiary Jail is established in any Zilla, the order shall be communicated to the Judge of the Zilla, through the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut.

To be visited by the Judge on circuit, or if inconvenient he may direct the Zilla Judge to visit and report on them.

SECTION V.—When possible, Subsidiary Jails shall be visited, in the same manner as is directed for Zilla Criminal Jails, by the Judge on Circuit; but from being out of the way, or other good cause, established to the satisfaction of the Suddur Foujdaree Adawlut, it may be competent for that Court to direct the Zilla Criminal Judge personally to visit such Jails, immediately on the conclusion of a Session, making a report to the Judge on Circuit, of all matters necessary regarding them.

REGULATION V. A. D. 1830.

A REGULATION providing for the appointment of a Revenue Commissioner to have Superintendence over the revenue Administration of the territories Subordinate to Bombay and for the appointment in certain Zillahs when thought expedient, of Principal Collectors with Sub-Collectors. PASSED by the Honorable the Governor in Council of Bombay, on the 27th day of January 1830, Corresponding with the 3d Maha Sood, Sumbut or Vikramajet Era 1886, Salbahan 1751, Fusly 1239, Soorsun 1230, and Shaban 1245 of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it appears desirable that the revenue administration of the territories Subordinate to the Presidency of Bombay should comprise a system of general Superintendence and Control, and, whereas it will also be attended with advantage that there should be various grades of officers in that department, including those of the first description, whereby the zealous and prolonged services of officers of talent & experience in that important branch of the administration may be secured, the following rules have, therefore, been enacted to have effect from the date of promulgation.

Appointment of a Revenue Commissioner over the Zillahs subordinate to Bombay.

SECTION I.—Clause 1*st.*—There shall be a Revenue Commissioner appointed for the Zillahs Subordinate to the Bombay Government, with the exception of the Southern Mahratta Country, which for the present, is placed under different management.

To have Control over the Revenue administration.

Clause 2*d.*—The Revenue Commissioner shall, under such instructions as Government shall from time to time issue, have control over the whole revenue administration of the Provinces, and over all the Officers employed therein.

To reside at no fixed station.

Clause 3*d.*—The Revenue Commissioner shall reside at no fixed station, but shall visit, from time to time, as ordered by Government, or as particular occasion may call for it, the different Districts and Zillahs under the Presidency.

He shall enquire into and redress grievances on the spot.

Clause 4*th.*—The Revenue Commissioner shall enquire into, and redress grievances on the spot, arising in the revenue administration, that have not already been made subject of judicial investigation.

Clause 5th.

REGULATION V. A. D. 1830.

To enquire into, pass orders, and report on all items of expenditure in the Teritorial Department.

Clause 5th.—It shall be the duty of the Revenue Commissioner to enquire into, pass orders, and report on all items of expenditure in the Territorial Department, and to extend a General Superintendence over the whole revenue administration.

He shall have authority to issue orders to all Revenue Officers on all subjects except the adjudication of suits, & Police. Acts done by Revenue Officers under the Revenue Commissioner's Orders, if made subject of Civil suit, shall be answered by the Revenue Officer.

Clause 6th.—The Revenue Commissioner shall have authority to issue Orders to all Revenue Officers in charge of Zillas throughout the districts under his control, (and the same shall be obeyed by all such officers), on all subjects except the adjudication of Civil suits, and the Department of Police: but, if any act done by a Revenue Officer, under Orders from the Revenue Commissioner, shall subsequently form the subject of a Civil suit, such Revenue Officer shall still answer in such suit as defendant, in the same manner as if the act had been done by him, on his own authority alone.

The appointment of principal Collectors and Sub-Collectors.

SECTION II.—Clause 1st.—In such Zillahs as the Honorable the Governor in Council, may deem expedient, he shall appoint a principal Collector, and one or more Sub-Collectors.

The duties and powers of the principal Collector defined.

Clause 2d.—The duties and powers of the principal Collector, whether as Collector or Magistrate, shall be the same, & he shall be bound by the same rules as are provided in the different Regulations for those Officers respectively.

The duties and functions of a Sub-Collector defined.

Clause 3d.—The functions and duties of a Sub-Collector, shall be those of a Collector, and he shall be governed by the same rules in the Districts placed under his charge, but subject, in the revenue administration, to the control and instructions of the Principal Collector.

Also as Magistrate.

Clause 4th.—As Magistrate, the Sub-Collector is vested with the same powers and penal jurisdiction, as is provided in the Regulations for the Collector, as Magistrate.

Also in the decision of Civil Suits and Appeals under Chapter VIII. Regulation XVII. of 2827.

Clause 5th.—In the decision of suits under Chapter VIII. of Regulation XVII. of 1827, and, in deciding Appeals from Komavisdars, or other similar Officers, in suits referred to those Officers, the Sub-Collector is vested with the same functions and jurisdiction as the Collector: an Appeal lying to the Sudder Dewanee Udawlut from the decision of the Sub-Collector, under the rules provided in Regulation VI. of 1830.

(Revenue Branch)

REGULATION VI. A. D. 1830.

(SUPPLEMENT III TO REGULATION XVII OF 1827.)

A REGULATION authorizing the Collector to refer Suits cognizable by him under Chapter VIII. Regulation XVII of 1827, to Komavisdars, and altering the rules in respect of appeals in such suits.—PASSED by the Honorable the Governor in Council of Bombay, on the 27th. day of January 1830, Corresponding with the 3d. Maha Sood Sumbut or Vikramajet Era 1886. Salbahan 1751, Fusly 1239, Soorsun 1230, and 2d Shaban 1245, of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it has been deemed expedient to authorize the Collector to refer Suits instituted under Chapter VIII. of Regulation XVII. of 1827, to his Komavisdars, or other equal and similar District Officers, however designated, and to provide, that Appeals, in the decisions of such suits, shall be open to the Collector and from him direct to the Suddur Dewanee Udawlut, the following rules have, therefore, been enacted to have effect from the date of promulgation.

The Collector and Sub-Collector authorized to refer suits instituted under Chapter VIII. of Regulation XVII. of 1827, to their Komavisdars, when the matter at issue does not exceed 500 Rupees.

SECTION I.—In modification of the rules of Chapter VIII. Regulation XVII. of 1827, for the trial of certain civil suits by the Collector, it is hereby enacted that the Collector and Sub-Collectors are authorized to refer to the several Komavisdars of their Dstricts, or other equal and similar Officer, suits instituted under the provision of the said Chapter, when the value of the matter at issue does not exceed 500 Rupees.

REGULATION VII. A. D. 1830.

A REGULATION for bringing under the operation of the Regulations, the Territories comprised in the Southern Mahratta Country, belonging to the Honorable Company, and forming the said Territories into a Zillah.—PASSED by the Governor in Council of Bombay on the 17*th of March* 1830, Corresponding with the 8*th of Falgoon Vud Sumbut or Vikramajet Era* 1886, Salbahan 1751, Fusly 1239, Soorsun 1230, and 21*st Rumzan* 1245, of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Administration of the territories of the Southern Mahratta Country acquired by conquest by the Honorable Company from the Paishwa, and by treaty and agreement from other States, has been hitherto conducted under the orders of the Honorable the Governor in Council, the Regulations being in force in the said territories as instructions to be acted upon, as far as circumstances, under the recent acquisition might dictate, and, as preparatory to the formal introduction of the Regulations, as established laws; and, Whereas the said Country and territories having now, by order of the Honorable the Court of Directors been finally annexed to the Presidency of Bombay, the Honorable the Governor in Council has judged it expedient to form the said territories into a Zillah, to be denominated the Zillah, of Dharwar, and to introduce and establish therein the Regulations now in force under the Presidency of Bombay, in the same manner, and upon the same principles, as in the territories of the Dekhan and Khandesh, under the provisions of Regulations XXIX. and XXX. of 1827, the following rules have therefore been enacted to have effect from the 1st of June, 1830.

The territories of the Southern Mahratta country formed into a Zillah.

SECTION I.—The territories of the Southern Mahratta country; as described in Appendix A. to this Regulation, are hereby formed into a Zillah to be denominated the Zillah of Dharwar.

SECTION II.

REGULATION VII. A. D. 1830.

Brought under the operation of the Regulations.

SECTION II.—And it is hereby enacted that the said Zillah is brought under the operation of the general regulations, now in force under the Bombay Presidency, with the exceptions and according to the rules provided in Regulations XXIX, and XXX, of 1827, for the territories of the Dekhan and Khandesh, as the same may not have been modified by any subsequent enactment, and with the exceptions of the following Sections.

Exception.

Office of Judge and Session Judge and of Collector and Magistrate vested, for the present, in one person.

SECTION III.—It is hereby enacted that for such period as may be deemed expedient by the Honorable the Governor in Council, the Office of Judge and Session Judge in the Zillah of Dharwar, shall be vested in the same person, as is Collector and Magistrate.

Jurisdiction of the Assistant Judge to be that of Senior Assiitant Judge detached.

SECTION IV.—The Assistant Judge at Dharwar, whilst the Offices of Judge and Collector are in the same person, is to have the jurisdiction and authority of a Senior Assistant Judge at a detached Station.

There shall be a Political Agent with power to try Suits institnted againts persons of rank under certain modification of Section III. Regulation XXIX. 1827.

SECTION V.—There shall be a Political Agent in the Southern Mahratta Country, on the part of Government, for the trial of Suits against persons of rank and in modification of the rules contained in Section III, and the following Sections of Regulation XXIX, 1827, it is enacted that suits against such persons, of whom a list shall be furnished by Government to the Agent, shall be tried by him in the same manner, and under the same rules as are enacted for the Agent of Sirdars' Claims for the Dekhan.

REGULATION XV. A. D. 1830.

A REGULATION for rescinding and re-enacting, with modifications, the Provisions contained in Regulation VI. 1818, for regulating the Trade of Foreign Nations with the Ports and Settlements of the British Nation in the East Indies.—PASSED by the Governor in Council, of Bombay, on the 31*st of March,* 1830, corresponding with the 8*th of Chyter Sood Sumbut or Vikramajet Era* 1886, Salbahan 1752, Fusly 1239, Soorsun 1230, and 6*th of Shaval* 1245, of the Hijree.

Preamble.

THE Honorable Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England Trading to the East Indies, having been pleased, by virtue of the powers vested in them by an Act of the British Legislature to rescind the Rules passed by the said Court on the 31st December 1817, and published and promulgated at this Presidency in Regulation VI. 1818, and to Enact other Rules to be in force in lieu thereof, the same have been framed into a Regulation as hereunder contained, and have been passed by the Governor in Council, to take effect and be in force from the date of promulgation.

Regulation VI. 1818 rescinded, and the following Regulation enacted in lieu of it.

II.—Regulation VI. 1818, is hereby rescinded, and the following Regulation passed by the Honorable the Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England Trading to the East Indies, shall take effect and be in full force in lieu thereof, within the Territories subject to the Presidency of Bombay.

A REGULATION for rescinding the existing Regulation of Thirty first of December, One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, relating to the Conduct of the Trade between the British Possessions in India, and the Countries and States in Amity with His Majesty, and for making other provisions in lieu thereof.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by a Regulation passed by the Court of Directors

REGULATION XV. A. D. 1830.

Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England Trading to the East Indies, on the Thirty first of December, one thousand eight hundred and Seventeen, entitled a " Regulation for carrying on the Trade between " the British Possessions in India, and the Countries and " States in Amity with His Majesty reciting that, by an " Act passed in the Thirty seventh year of the Reign of " His late Majesty King George the Third, entitled an Act " for regulating the Trade to be carried on with the " British Possessions in India by the Ships of Nations " in Amity with His Majesty, it was enacted that from " and after the passing of that Act, and during the conti- " nuance of the exclusive Trade of the United Company " of Merchants of England Trading to the East Indies, and " during the term for which the possession of the British " Territories in India is secured to the said United Com- " pany, it should be lawful for the Ships and Vessels of " Countries and States in Amity with His Majesty, to Im- " port into and Export from the British Possessions in In- " dia, such Goods and Commodities as they should be " permitted to Import into and Export from the said " Possessions by the Directors of the said Company, who " were thereby directed to frame such Regulations for car- " rying on the Trade to and from the said Possessions, and " the Countries and States in Amity with His Majesty as " should seem to them most conducive to the interest and " prosperity of the said British Possessions in India, and " of the British Empire, and that no Ship or Vessel be- " longing to any of the subjects of States or Countries in " Amity with His Majesty, should be liable to Seizure, " Confiscation, or Forfeiture, or other penalty, for Export- " ing from or Importing into the said British Possessions " in any Goods or Commodities, the Importation or Ex- " portation of which should respectively be permitted by " the said Regulation, any thing in a certain Act of the " Twelth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, " therein recited, to the contrary notwithstanding. Pro- " vided always that it should not be lawful for the Direc- " tors of the said United Company to frame any Regula- " tions for the conduct of the said Trade which should " be inconsistent with any Treaty or Treaties which " should have been, or might be entered into by His Ma- " jesty, his Heirs and Successors, and any Country or State " at Amity with His Majesty, or which might be incon-

" sistent

" sistent with any Act or Acts of Parliament which had " been passed for the Regulation of the Trade and Com- " merce of the said British Territories in India; And " reciting that by another Act passed in the Fifty third " year of the Reign of His said late Majesty entitled an " Act for continuing in the East India Company for a fur- " ther term the possession of the British Territories in " India together with certain exclusive privileges for esta- " blishing further Regulations for the Government of the " said Territories, and the better Administration of Jus- " tice within the same, and for regulating the Trade to and " from the places within the limits of the said Company's " Charter. All the enactments, provisions, matters, things " contained in any Act or Acts whatsoever, which were " limited, or might be construed to be limited, to continue " for and during the term granted to the said Company " by a certain Act of Parliament of Great Britain of the " Thirty third year of His said late Majesty therein reci- " ted, so far as the same or any of them were in force and " not repeated by, or repugnant to the said Act of the " Fifty third year of His said late Majesty, should con- " tinue and be in force during the further term thereby " granted to the said Company, subject to such altera- " tions therein as might be made of the enactments, provi- " sions, matters and things in that Act contained,"—Certain Rules were framed for carrying on the Trade to and from the British Possessions in India and the Countries and States in Amity with His Majesty, and whereas it has been deemed expedient that the distinction made by the last mentioned Regulation between Foreign European Ships belonging to Nations having Settlements in the East Indies, aud Foreign European Ships belonging to Countries having no such Settlements should be removed, and that the provisions thereby made for the Trade of Foreign European Ships belonging to Nations having Settlements of their own in the East Indies, should be extended to Foreign European Ships belonging to Nations having no Settlements in the East Indies, and also to Ships belonging to the Empire of Brazil. The Court of Directors of the said United Company, in virtue of the powers granted to them by the Acts herein before mentioned, or referred to, have rescinded the said Regulation of the Thirty first of December, One thousand Eight hundred and Seventeen, and in lieu thereof have framed the following Regulation.

1st.

REGULATION XV. A. D. 1830.

Foreign European Ships may freely enter the British Sea Ports and Harbours in the East Indies.

1st.—" Foreign European Ships belonging to any State " or Country, whether having a Settlement of it's own in " the East Indies or not, and Ships belonging to the " Empire of Brazil, so long as such States, Countries and " Empire respectively remain in Amity with His Majesty, " may freely enter the British Sea Ports and Harbours " in the East Indies, whether they come directly from " their own Country, or from any of the Ports and Places " in the East Indies, they shall be hospitably received, " and shall have liberty to Trade there in Imports and Ex- " ports, comformably to the Regulations established in " such places, provided that it shall not be lawful for the " said Ships in time of War between the British Govern- " ment and any State or Power whatever, to Export from " the said British Territories, without the special permis- " sion of the British Government, any Military or Naval " Stores, Salt Petre or Grain. The said Ships may also " be cleared out for any Port or Place in the East " Indies, but if cleared out for Europe, or for any Port " in the Empire of Brazil, they shall be cleared out di- " rect for the Country to which such Ships respectively " belong."

Proviso with regard to certain articles of Export in time of War.

The trade with America how to be regulated.

2d.—" The Trade between the British Possessions in " India and the United States of America shall continue " to be regulated by the convention of Commerce between " Great Britain and the United States of America, signed " at London, the 3d July 1815."

The present Rules not to affect the existing Regulations for defining the duties on Foreign Trade.

3d.—" Nothing in this Regulation shall be construed " to affect the provisions contained in the existing Re- " gulations for defining the duties to which the Trade of " Foreign Nations is, and shall be subject at the Ports " and Settlements of the British Nation in the East In- " dies."

Preamble.

WHEREAS the altered condition of British relations with Central India has led to a resolution to relax the restrictive system which obtained in regard to the sale and purchase of Opium made without the limits of the Presidency of Fort William, or Territories immediately dependent thereon and as it is expedient to secure under these circumstances a portion of the revenue formerly derived from the Opium Monopoly, the Hon'ble the Governor in Council has determined with the sanction of the Supreme Government of India to admit of the direct passage and importation into Bombay of Malwa Opium for exportation by Sea, under passes to be granted for a certain consideration in money. The following Regulation is therefore passed to have effect from the date of promulgation.

Part of Regulation XXI of 1827 providing for a duty on Opium imported into Bombay and for it's deposit in Warehouse rescinded as regards Malwa Opium imported under a pass.

SECTION I.—So much of Sections I and II of Regulation XXI of 1827 as provides for a duty on Opium imported into Bombay and for it's deposit in any Warehouse approved of by Government is hereby rescinded in so far as regards Malwa Opium imported under a pass in virtue of the provisions of this Regulation.

Opium may be imported into Bombay by the direct route for exportation by Sea, on obtaining regular Passes for a certain consideration in money.

SECTION II.—Clause 1*st*—Malwa Opium may in future be imported or brought into Bombay for exportation by Sea by the direct route from Malwa if accompanied by a regular Pass or Rowana describing the route obtained from the Opium Agent in Malwa or the Warehousekeeper in Bombay or other Officer duly authorized by Government, such consideration in money being paid for such passes as Government may from time to time deem expedient.

Opium so imported exempt from penalties prescribed by Regulation XXI of 1827 for illegally imported Opium.

Clause 2*d*.—Opium on it's direct route to Bombay or on it's importation there, in pursuance of the provisions of the preceding clause shall be exempt from the penalties provided in Regulation XXI of 1827 for Opium imported otherwise than according to the rules of that Regulation; but these penalties will still continue in force for all Opium except as excepted by Regulation XXI of 1827. Section I Clauses 1st and 2d.—Which is not accompanied by a pass duly obtained, or which is in excess of the quantity stated in such pass by which it may be accompanied.

And not subject to ordinary duties.

Clause 3*d*.—Opium passing to or imported into Bombay under this Regulation shall further be exempt from the ordinary duties leviable under Regulation XX of 1827.

REGULATION I A. D. 1831.

SUPPLEMENT 3rd. TO REGULATION XXIX OF 1827.

A REGULATION for extending the jurisdiction of the Agent of Government, Acting under the provisions of Section IV Regulation XXIX of 1827, over Suits in which persons of Rank of the privileged Classes are concerned, and which are now cognizable by the Collectors of land Revenue—PASSED by the Governor in Council of Bombay on the 5th of January 1831, corresponding with the 7th of Poush-Vud-Sumbut or Vikramajet Era 1887 Salbahan 1752, Fusly 1240 Soorsun 1231 and 20*th Rujub* 1246 of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it has been deemed expedient to extend the jurisdiction of the Agent of Government Acting under the provisions of Section IV Regulation XXIX of 1827, to Suits connected with land, its rent, and produce, wherein persons of rank of the privileged Classes established by that Regulation, are concerned; the following rules have accordingly been enacted to have effect from the date of promulgation.

Suits connected with land, its rent, and produce in which persons of rank of the privileged Classes in the Deckhun are concerned, shall be cognizable by the Agent of Government and not by the Collector of land Revenue.

SECTION I.—Clause 1*st.*—It is hereby declared that Suits connected with land, its rent, and produce wherein persons of rank of the privileged Classes, established by Regulation XXIX of 1827 are concerned and which, under the provisions of Section XXXI of Regulation XVII of 1827, are within the jurisdiction of Collectors of land Revenue, shall hereafter be cognizable only by the Agent of Government acting under the powers vested in him by Section IV Regulation XXIX of 1827, and under the same rules as are prescribed for his guidance in other Cases.

All Suits of this nature, now pending to be transferred to the Agent of Government.

Clause 2*d.*—All Suits of the nature adverted to in this Regulation now pending in the Revenue Courts of the Zillas of Poonah and Ahmednugur, are to be transferred to the Agent of Government on the promulgation of this Regulation, to be proceeded with before that authority.

REGULATION II A. D. 1831.

(SUPPLEMENT 1st. TO REGULATION XX OF 1827.)

A REGULATION for modifying and rescinding certain provisions of Regulation XX of 1827, in as far as respects the articles of Salt and Saltpetre.—PASSED by the Governor in Council of Bombay, on the 26*th of January* 1831, corresponding with the 13*th of Maha-Sood-Sumbut or Vikramajet Era* 1887 Salbahan 1752, Fusly 1240 Soorsun 1231 and 11*th Shaban* 1246 of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS advantage has been taken of the provisions of clause I Section XXVII Regulation XX of 1827, as exempting from inland duties, "goods" on which the import duty has been levied in the Concan, in regard to the article of Salt; and whereas it was not intended that any alteration should be made in the rules under which that article had passed the Ports in the Concan, or that the clause, and Section aforesaid should apply to Salt; it has accordingly been deemed expedient to declare that such exemption be no longer allowed, and the following rules have therefore been enacted to have effect from the promulgation of this Regulation.

Certificate exempting goods from inland duties declared not to apply to Salt, that article remaining subject to the former rules for its importation.

SECTION I.—The provisions of Clause 1st Section XXVII Regulation XX of 1827, by which importers of "goods" on which the import duties has been levied, are entitled to a certificate as an acquittance from the payment of Inland duties, are hereby declared not to apply to the article of Salt, or to affect the former rules under which the article was imported into the Ports of the Concan.

Certain Parts of Regulation XX 1827 rescinded.

SECTION II.—So much of Clause 1st Section I Regulation XX of 1827, as continued in force Regulation V of 1816, for preventing the exportation by Sea of Saltpetre, is hereby rescinded.

REGULATION III A. D. 1831.

(SUPPLEMENT 3d. TO REGULATION XVIII OF 1827.)

A REGULATION for subjecting to the Stamp duty, Copies of Decrees passed by Native Commissioners, exempted therefrom under Regulation XVIII of 1827. —PASSED by the Governor in Council of Bombay, on the 26*th of January* 1831, corresponding with the 13*th of Maha-Sood-Sumbut or Vikramajet Era* 1887 Salbahan 1752, Fusly 1240 Soorsun 1231 and 11*th Shaban* 1246 of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS in consequence of the jurisdiction of Native Commissioners in the Cognizance of Original Suits, having under the provisions of Regulation I of 1830 been enlarged, it has been deemed expedient to modify such part of Regulation XVIII as admits of Copies of Decrees passed by them being written on unstampt paper, the following rule has therefore been enacted to take effect from the date of promulgation.

Decrees passed by Native Commissioners required to be written on Stampt paper.

SECTION I.—So much of Section XX Regulation XVIII of 1827, as provides for Copies of Decrees passed by Native Commissioners being written on plain paper is rescinded: and it is hereby declared that Copies of Decrees passed by these functionaries shall hereafter, be furnished on Stampt paper, on the scale laid down in Appendix F of the above quoted Regulation.

REGULATION IV A. D. 1831.

(SUPPLEMENT 1st. TO REGULATION XVI OF 1827.)

A REGULATION for vesting on special occasions Assistant Collectors being also Assistant Magistrates, when on deputation, with Criminal jurisdiction in offences declared penal under Section XI of Regulation XVI and Section XVI of Regulation XVII A. D. 1827, and hitherto cognizable only by Collectors as Magistrates.—PASSED by the Governor in Council of Bombay, on the 26*th of January* 1831, corresponding with the 13*th of Maha-Sood Sumbut or Vikramajet Æra* 1887, Salbahan 1752 Fusly 1240 Soorsun 1231 and 11*th Shaban* 1246 of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS great public inconvenience having been experienced from cases of petty extortion and peculation not being taken cognizance of, at or near to the spot where they may have been committed, thereby subjecting many of the Ryots as well as the district Officers to the inconvenience of making long journeys; and creating much unnecessary delay in the due administration of justice, the following rules have therefore been enacted to have effect from the date of promulgation.

Assistant Collectors being Assistant Magistrates empowered to take cognizance of offences declared penal under the within mentioned enactments.

SECTION I.—Clause 1*st.*—In modification of the rules laid down in Section XI of Regulation XVI and Section XVI of Regulation XVII of 1827 for the trial of offences therein specified by the Collectors as Magistrates, it is hereby enacted that Assistant Collectors being also Assistant Magistrates, shall, when on deputation, and specially appointed, have penal jurisdiction in all such offences.

But such power only to be exercised on Sanction obtained from the Honorable the Governor in Council through the medium of the Sudur Foujdaree Udalut.

Clause 2*d.*—Previous however to the exercise of such power, the sanction of the Honorable the Governor in Council shall be obtained by the Collector, through the medium of the Sudur Foujdaree Udalut, by special application for each particular assistant required to be vested with such authority.

The penal jurisdiction defined.

SECTION II.—Clause 1*st.*—The penal jurisdiction of assistant Collectors as assistant Magistrates, so empowered, shall extend to fine or imprisonment for the period of eighteen (18) months, or both, provided that in no case shall that term of imprisonment be exceeded, inclusive of the commutation for fine.

And restricted.

Clause 2d.—Sentences passed under the preceeding clause shall not be carried into effect without being first confirmed by the Collector as Magistrate after an examination of all the proceedings, for which purpose they shall be referred within as short a period as possible.

REGULATION VII A. D, 1831.

(SUPPLEMENT III TO REGULATION IV. A. D. 1827.)

A REGULATION for modifying the Rules under which Appeals in Civil Suits are to be admitted.—PASSED by the Right Honorable the Governor in Council of Bombay on the 29th day of June 1831; corresponding with the 4th Jest Vud Sumbut or Vikramajet Era 1887, Salbahan 1753, Fusly 1241, Soorsun 1232, and 18th Mohurrum 1247, of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it having been found inconvenient to parties in distant Zillas that the Appeal from the Assistant Judge's decisions should lie only to the Suder Dewanee Udalut, the following Rules have been enacted to take effect from the date of their promulgation.

Rescinding clauses 1.2.3. of Section LXXII Regulation IV A. D. 1827. and Regulation II A. D. 1830.

SECTION I.—The three first clauses of Section LXXII Regulation IV A. D. 1827 and Regulation II. A. D. 1830 are hereby rescinded.

Appeals from the Decisions of Umeens to lie to the Zilla Judge who may refer them to his Assistants.

SECTION II.—Decisions made by Native Commissioners may be appealed to the Zilla Judge according to the Rules contained in the sixteenth chapter of Regulation IV A. D. 1837 as they may be modified by subsequent Enactments, ments, and such Appeals may be referred for trial to Assistant Judges under the Rules contained in Regulation I. A. D. 1830, as they may be modified by subsequent Enactments.

Decisions passed by an Assistant Judge at the Sudder station upon Appeals so referred are open under certain restrictions to a further Appeal to the Zilla Judge.

SECTION III.—Clause 1.—If the decision of an Assistant Judge of the Sudder station confirm that of the Native Commissioner it shall be appealable to the Zilla Judge provided the matter at issue (that is the Property the disposal of which in the said decision is disputed, whether it be the whole or a Part of that sued for,) do not exceed in value (2000) two thousand Rupees; but if the Assistant Judge's decision alter or reverse that of the Commissioner it shall be so appealable if the matter at issue do not exceed in value (1000) one thousand Rupees. If the matter at issue be above these sums respectively the Appeal shall lie to the Court of Sudur Dewance Udalut,

Also from an Assistant Judge at a detached station.

Clause 2*d.*—If the decision of an Assistant Judge at a detached station confirm that of the Commissioner it shall be final if the matter at issue do not exceed in value (1000) one thousand Rupees; but if the Assistant Judge's decision alters or reverses that of the Commissioner it shall be final only if the matter at issue do not exceed in Value (500) five hundred Rupees.

Special Appeal to the Judge provided for in Suits which by the provisions of the preceding clause are debarred from a regular Appeal.

Clause 3*d.*—When the matter at issue in an Appeal decided by an Assistant Judge at a detached station is below the amount stated in the preceding clause as the limit of his final Jurisdiction, the Parties may proceed by special Appeal to the Zilla Judge under the Rules in Chapter XXII of Regulation IV A. D. 1827 as they may be modified by subsequent enactments.

Clause

Clause 4th.—And when the matter at issue in such an Appeal is above the amount of the Assistant Judge's final Jurisdiction, it may be re-appealed to the Zilla Judge, if it do not exceed (5000) five thousand Rupees, if it be above that sum the Appeal will lie to the Sudur Dewanee Udalut.

In suits not falling within the final Jurisdiction of the Assistant Judge a further Appeal to lie to the Judge when the amount does not exceed 5000 Rupees, if above that sum to the Sudur Dewanee Udalut.

Clause 5th.—The Zilla Judge's decision on cases appealed to him shall be final, except by means of special Appeal to the Sudur Dewanee Udalut.

The Zilla Judge's decision in Appeals above referred to declared final, except by special Appeal to the Suddur Dewanee Udalut.

SECTION IV. Clause 1.—Suits referred to Assistant Judges for original Trial according to Regulation I. A. D. 1830, Section V. shall be appealable to the Zilla Judge, whose decision shall be final if confirmatory of the original decision, and the matter at issue do not exceed in value (5000) five thousand Rupees.

Suits tried in the first instance by the Assistant Judge appealable to the Zilla Judge whose decision is in certain cases made final.

Clause 2d.—But otherwise they shall be appealable to the Sudur Dewanee Udalut, to which Court also the resort by means of special Appeal under the general Rules for that process continues open in all cases.

And in others open to regular Appeal to the Sudur Dewanee Udalut, a special Appeal lying in all cases to that Court under the general rules.

SECTION V. In modification of Clause I. Section XCIX. Regulation V. of 1827, it is hereby made optional with the party desirous of making a special appeal to the Court of Sudur Dewanee Adaulut to present his Petition in that Court as now practised, or to the Zilla Judge for transmission, when the Zilla Judge will immediately forward the same with copies of the Decrees of the lower Courts.

A petition for a special Appeal may be presented either in the Zilla Court for transmission to the Sudur Dewanee Udawlut or the as Law now stands at the Court of Sudur Dewanee Udawlut.

REGULATION XII A. D. 1831.

A REGULATION for providing funds for the repair of the City Walls of Ahmedabad.—PASSED by the Governor in Council of Bombay on the 6*th July* 1831. Corresponding with the 12*th Jest Vud Sumbut or Vikramajet Era* 1887, Salbahan 1753, Fusly 1241, Soorsun 1232, and 25*th Mohurrum* 1247, of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it has been deemed advisable, in order to afford greater security of person and property to the inhabitants of the City of Ahmedabad, that the now delapidated Walls of the City should be thoroughly repaired, at the same time that it is just that the outlay necessary for accomplishing the same should in the absence of any fund at present existing applicable thereto and in consideration of the great reduction of the Customs and Taxes of Ahmedabad made by the British Government since their acquisition of the City, be eventually borne by the inhabitants thereof, and Traders resorting thereto.

And whereas the sanction of the Court of Directors, and approval of the Board of Controul, as required by Law previous to the imposition of a new Tax, have been already obtained to the imposing additional Town Duties upon certain articles in the Towns under this Presidency, which Town Duties may be made available for the above purpose at Ahmedabad.

The

The following Rules for providing from the said sources, the funds necessary to repay the Cost of the said repairs, have been accordingly passed by the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, to have effect from the date of promulgation.

Import, Town Duty to be levied at Ahmedabad on certain Articles.

SECTION I.—Clause 1*st*—An Import Town Duty shall be levied, from and after promulgation of this Regulation in the City of Ahmedabad, in addition to the Import Duties at present existing there, upon the Articles and at the rates severally noted in Appendix A.

Export Town Duty on others.

Clause 2*d*.—An Export Town Duty, in addition to any Export Duties now existing, shall be levied upon Export of the Articles noted in Appendix B. and at the rates therein specified.

Collection of, to whom to be entrusted.

SECTION II. Clause 1*st*—The collection of the said Town Duties, shall be conducted by the Collector, or Officer in charge of the Land Customs of the City, under the rules applicable to the said Land Customs.

Accounts of, to be kept separate, and open to inspection.

Clause 2*d*. The accounts of the collection of the said Duties shall be kept separate and distinct from those of the Land Customs, under such rules as the Collector may make for the purpose, and shall be at all times open to the inspection of the Committee for conducting the repairs of the City Walls.

To what purpose to be devoted.

Clause 3*d*. The collections realized under this enactment shall be devoted to form a Fund for reimbursing the expense incurred by Government in repairing the City Walls, which expense shall accordingly be debited to the Fund, and the receipts regularly credited to it, until the receipts have covered the expenditure.

These duties when and in what proportions to cease.

SECTION III. Clause 1*st*—When the outlay for general repairs including charges intermediately incurred shall shall have been recovered, the Export Duty in Appendix B. shall cease, and so much only of the Import Duty in Appendix A shall be continued as the Right Honorable the Governor in Council may consider sufficient to repay the expense of keeping the City Walls in good condition.

Clause 2d.—And the rates when so removed from or reduced on particular articles shall be notified in a List to be kept, affixed conspicuously at each station for collecting them, the amount being regulated from time to time by instructions from Government in any way that will not exceed the rate fixed on each Article by the said Appendix.

Notification to be made of the extent to which the Duties are eventually maintained.

REGULATION XVI. A. D. 1831.

(SUPPLEMENT IV. TO REGULATION XXIX. OF 1827.)

A REGULATION for extending the Jurisdiction vested in the Political Agent in the Southern Mahratta Country, under the provisions of Sec. V. Regulation VII. A. D. 1830, to the cognizance of Civil Suits of the nature specified in Regulation I. A. D. 1831, and also for the better defining the extent of Jurisdiction therein conferred, with respect to persons of the privileged Classes.—PASSED by the Right Honorable the Governor in Council of Bombay on the 14*th day of September* 1831. Corresponding with the 8*th Bhadrapud Sood Sumbut or Vikramajet Era* 1887, Salbahan 1753, Fusly 1241, Soorsun 1232, and 7*th Rubee-ul-Akhur* 1247, of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it has been deemed expedient to extend to the Political Agent in the Southern Mahratta Country, as Agent of Government, the cognizance of Suits of the nature specified in Regulation I. A. D. 1831, and to define more expressly the extent to which such Suits shall be cognizable before the Agent of Government: the following Rules have therefore been enacted to have effect from the date of promulgation.

Suits of the nature specified in Clause I. Sec. I. Regulation I. A. D. 1831, also declared cognizable before the Political Agent of the Southern Mahratta Country.

SECTION I.—It is hereby enacted, that Suits of the nature specified in Clause 1st Sec. I. Regulation I. A. D. 1831, shall also be cognizable before the Political Agent in the Southern Mahratta Country, as Agent of Government, and shall be tried by him in the same manner, and under under the same Rules as are prescribed for his guidance in Section V. Regulation VII. A. D. 1830.

The provisions of Clause I. Sec. I. Regulation I. A. D. 1831, explained to be applicable to such Suits only wherein the persons of the privileged classes are Defendants.

SECTION II.—And it is further explained, with reference to Clause 1st Sec. I. Regulation I. A. D. 1831, that such Suits, shall be cognizable before the Agents of Government only, when the person of the rank of the privileged classes shall, in the Original Suit, stand in the relation of Defendants.

REGULATION XVII. A. D. 1831.

(SUPPLEMENT I. TO REGULATION XXII. A. D. 1827.)

A REGULATION for extending the powers of the Court of Requests, constituted under Clause 1st Sec. VII. Regulation XXII. A. D. 1827, when sitting in places beyond the British Territory.—PASSED by the Right Honorable the Governor in Council of Bombay on the 14th day of September 1831. Corresponding with the 8th Bhadrapud Sood Sumbut or Vikramajet Era 1887, Salbahan 1753, Fusley 1241, Soorsun 1232, and 7th Rubee-ul-Akhur 1247, of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, great hinderance and obstruction to the recovery of just and lawful claims, against persons residing within the limits of Cantonments and Military Stations, beyond the British Territories, having been found to exist, in consequence of the sums indebted being of larger amount than can be taken cognizance of by the Court of Requests, constituted under Clause 1st Sec. VII. Regulation XXII. A. D. 1827, it has been deemed expedient, in order to meet this exigency, that the powers of the Court of Requests, when sitting in places beyond the British Territory, be extended: the following Rule has therefore been enacted, to have effect from the date of promulgation.

The limitation (Rs. 400) of claims cognizable before a Court of Requests, declared not to be applicable when such Court is sitting in places beyond the British Territory.

SECTION I.—It is hereby declared, in modification of Clause 1st, Sec. VII. Regulation XXII. A. D. 1827, that the limitation of claims, cognizable by Courts of Requests under that Section, to sums not exceeding Bombay Rupees pees four hundred (400), shall not be held applicable to those Courts, when sitting in places beyond the British Territories, but claims of the nature therein described, shall be cognizable, whatever may be the amount.

REGULATION XVIII. A. D. 1831.

(SUPPLEMENT III. TO REGULATION II. A. D. 1827.)

A REGULATION for instituting gradations of Rank in the Judicial Appointments conferred on Natives and defining the authority to be exercised, by each Rank.—PASSED by the Right Honorable the Governor in Council of Bombay on the 14*th day of December* 1831. Corresponding with the 10*th Margseer Sood Sumbut or Vikramajet Era* 1888, Salbahan 1753, Fusly 1241, Soorsun 1232, and 9*th Rujub* 1247, of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is consistent with the Principles on which the Original trial of Civil Suits in general has been vested in Natives of the Country, that a certain extent of Appellate jurisdiction should also be exercised by them; and it being deemed expedient for the better introduction of this measure that certain gradations of Rank should be instituted amongst the Native Judicial authorities, the following Rules are enacted to have effect from the 1st January 1832.

Establishing three gradations of Native Commissioners, and their respective designations.

SECTION I.—The Office of Native Commissioner instituted by Regulation II. A. D. 1827, Section XXXVII. shall henceforth comprize three gradations, and the Officers holding them shall be denominated Native Judges, Principal Native Commissioners, and Junior Native Commissioners respectively.

Section

Providing for the appointment of Native Judges.

SECTION II. Clause I.—In modification of the 1st Clause of Sec. XXXVIII. Regulation II. A. D. 1827, it is hereby provided, that the Commissions conferring the Office of Native Judge shall be issued by the Governor in Council to such Individuals as he may select.

Of Principal Native Commissioners.

Clause 2d.—And the Principal Native Commissioners shall be selected as well as appointed by the Court of Suddur Dewannee Adawlut.

Of Junior Native Commissioners.

Clause 3d.—And the Junior Native Commissioners shall continue to be appointed on the principles laid down in the above quoted Enactment.

Native Judges to have Cognizance, in addition to original Suits of any amount, of appeals from decisions of Principal or Junior Native Commissioners not exceeding one hundred Rupees.

SECTION III. Clause I.—Besides the trial of original Suits of any amount, appeals from Original decisions made in any part of the respective Zilla by Principal or Junior Native Commissioners, if not exceeding one hundred (100) Rupees in amount, may be referred to the Native Judges, whose decisions thereon shall be subject to the same course of Appeal as their decisions on Original Suits.

Principal Native Commissioners of Original Suits to the Amount of Ten thonsand and Junior Native Commissioners of five thousand Rupees.

Clause 2d.—In modification of the 1st Clause of Sec. V Regulation I. A. D. 1830 it is hereby provided that Principal Native Commissioners shall be authorized to try Suits only to the amount of Ten thousand Rupees, and Junior Native Commissioners only to the amount of Five thousand Rupees.

REGULATION I. A. D. 1832.

A REGULATION for equalizing the Tax on Salt, imported at Malwan and Vingorla, in the Konkan Zilla, with other places of import in their vicinity, made with the sanction of the Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England, trading to the East Indies, and with the approbation of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, and.—PASSED by the Right Honorable the Governor in Council of Bombay, on the 16*th of May* 1832, Corresponding with the 2*nd of Vaisack Vud Sumbut or Vikramajet Era* 1888, Salbahan 1754, Fusly 1241, Soorsun 1232, and 14*th Zilhaz* 1247 of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the low rate of Tax on Salt levied at the Bunders of Malwan and Vingorla compared with the rates in the vicinity, has been found to bear unfavorably on the Government revenue, as well as to be destructive of the trade at those places, it has been deemed expedient to place the Bunders of Malwan and Vingorla on the same footing as the others: the following Rules have, therefore, been enacted, by the authority of the Governor in Council of Bombay, with the sanction of the Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and with the approbation of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, and shall have effect from the date of promulgation.

The Tax on Salt imported at Malwan and Vingorla in the Conkan Zilla, equalized with that levied at other places of import in their vicinity.

SECTION I.—All Salt imported at theBunders of Malwan and Vingorla in the Konkan Zilla, shall be subject to the same rate of Tax, as now levied at the neighbouring Bunders of Achura, Khurara, Malundee, and Rajapoor; viz, instead of the two Purkhanee Rupees per Ana of fifty Furras heretofore taken at Malwan and Vingorla, the Government Tizaee shall be levied at the same rates as exist in the places above named.

REGULATION II. A. D. 1832.

(SUPPLEMENT V. TO REGULATION XVII. OF 1827.)

A REGULATION providing for the realization of certain Items of Revenue from Farmers thereof—PASSED by the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, on the 13th day of June 1832, corresponding with the 15th of Jest Sood Sumbut or Vikramajet Era 1886, Salbahan 1754, Fusly 1242, Soorsun 1233, and 13th Mohurrum 1248 of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it has been deemed expedient to institute Rules for enforcing the collection of Revenue due from Farmers of Sea and Land Customs, Transit duties, and other Taxes and duties of whatever description, and of any Branch of the public Revenue, for which Rules are not laid down in ~~Chap. IX. Regulation~~ XVII. of 1827, the following enactment has therefore been passed, to take effect from the date of promulgation.

The Farmer how to be proceeded against, in failure of his engagements.

SECTION I.—Clause 1st.—The Rules contained in Section XXVIII. Regulation XVII. A. D. 1827, for recovering sums which Farmers of land Revenue and their securities may fail to pay, and resuming their Farm, shall also be applicable to cases wherein the collection of Sea Customs, Land Customs, Transit duties or any Tax or duty, or other item of Revenue whatsoever is farmed, the Officers respectively employed, being substituted for those occupying corresponding Offices in the Land Revenue department.

On resumption of a Farm no payments made to the Farmer in advance, to be admitted.

Clause 2d.—In the event of the resumption of a Farm, no payment made to the Farmer in anticipation, shall be held to bar the claim of the Officer in charge of the collections, to the Customs, Tax or duty which he will realize in the same way as if no Farm had been granted.

Penalties specified in the agreement, how to be levied.

SECTION II.—All specific pecuniary penalties to which a Farmer or his security renders himself liable under the terms of his agreement, shall be recovered from him, in the same way as a balance of Revenue.

A REGULATION for vesting Judicial Native Commissioners with authority to try Civil Actions in any part of a Zillah, to which they stand appointed.—PASSED by the Right Honorable the Governor in Council on the 16*th day of January* 1833; corresponding with the 11*th of Poush Vud Sumbut or Vikramajet Era* 1889, Salbahan 1754, Fusley 1242, Soorsun 1233, and 24*th Shabhan* 1248, of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it has been found expedient to modify as much of Clause 2nd. Section XXXVIII. Regulation II. A. D. 1827, as provides for the specification of the District over which Commissioners have Jurisdiction, being inserted in the Commissions of appointment, the following alterations have been enacted; to take effect from the date of promulgation.

The Provision in Regulation II. of 1827, requiring that Commissions shall specify the district of each Commissioner's Jurisdiction, rescinded.

SECTION I. -Clause 1.—So much of Clause 2nd. Section XXXVIII. Regulation II. of 1827, as requires that Commissions shall specify the particular District over which the Jurisdiction of Commissioners shall extend, is hereby rescinded.

Their Commissions shall be made for the Zillah generally, but their Jurisdiction shall extend over a particular district, defined and fixed upon by the Zilla Judge, under the sanction of the Sudder Dewanee Adawlut.

Clause 2.—Commissions of appointment shall be made out for the Zillah generally. The Jurisdiction of Commissioners shall continue as at present, to extend over a particular District, to be defined and fixed upon by the Zillah Judge, under the sanction of the Suder Dewanee Adawlut.

The Zillah Judge, authorized to depute the Commissioners temporarily, from their ordinary districts, to assist in others.

Clause 3.—Zillah Judges shall have authority to depute temporarily, Commissioners from their ordinary Districts, to assist in others, where Suits may have accumulated and fallen into arrears.

REGULATION III. A. D. OF 1833.

(SUPPLEMENT III.)

TO

REGULATION XII. A. D. 1827.

A REGULATION for the more efficient administration of Police in certain large Towns situated in the Zillas subordinate to Bombay.—PASSED by the Right Honorable the Governor in Council on the 6th day of February 1833. Corresponding with the 2nd Maha Vud Sumbut or Vikramajet Era 1889, Salbahan 1754, Fusly 1242, Soorsun 1233, and 16th Rumzan 1248, of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it has been found expedient to establish a more efficient System of Police for extensive and populous Towns, by the constitution of additional Authorities to be designated "Joint Police Officers", in such places as the Right Honorable the Governor in Council may from time to time determine, the following Rules have been enacted to have effect from the date of promulgation.

Provides for the appointment of "Joint Police officers."

SECTION 1.—Clause 1.—Joint Police Officers shall be appointed in all such Towns as Government may direct on the recommendation of the Magistrates.

To whom they shall be subordinate, and what powers and Jurisdiction vested in them.

Clause 2nd—Such Officers shall be subordinate to the Native Collectors of the Districts within which they may be fixed; they shall nevertheless be vested with authority and Jurisdiction similar to what is exercised under the Regulations by the District Police Officers, and shall dispose of all Police matters which may be referred to them for inquiry either particularly or generally.

Rules regarding their appointment, dismissal and responsibility.

Clause 3*rd*.—The same rules which at present exist for the appointment, dismissal and responsibility of District Police Authorities are to extend in all respects to Joint Police Officers.

Regulation by which they shall be guided in the performance of their duty.

Clause 4*th*.—The Magistrate's authority over Joint Police Officers and their Proceedings shall be similar to what is already laid down by Regulations over other Police Servants on their Establishment, and in the performance of their duties within the Towns to which they may be nominated, the Joint Police Officers shall be guided by the Provision contained in Chapter V. Regulation XII. A. D. 1827; and other subsequent Regulations defining or extending the same.

How to correspond with superior authorities.

SECTION II.—All communications with superior authorities shall go through the District Police Officers except in cases where, from the delay caused by pursuing such a course, the Public interests might be affected; or where other good and substantial reasons may exist, which shall be stated at large in the Joint Police Officer's proceedings.

When no Sentence has been adjudged, a case referred to the Joint Police Officer may be resumed by the District Police Officer.

SECTION III.—Clause 1.—The District Police Officer may at any time, if he see fit to do so, resume a case which has been referred to the Joint Police Officer provided the Sentence has not been adjudged.

And where a Sentence has been adjudged, the District Police Officer may suspend execution, pending a reference to the Magistrate.

Clause 2*nd*.—Where sentence has been adjudged, the District Police Officer may, if he should deem it necessary, suspend execution, pending a reference to the Magistrate who may mitigate or annul the Sentence.

REGULATION IV. OF A. D. 1833.

(SUPPLEMENT IV.)

TO

REGULATION XX. A. D. 1827.

A REGULATION for protecting the Public Revenue from loss arising from the diversion of Trade from the Ports of the British Territory to those of Foreign States, and also for imposing a Duty on Salt imported into the British Territory from Foreign States, made with the sanction of the Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England Trading to the East Indies, and with the approbation of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, and.—PASSED by the Right Honorable the Governor in Council at Bombay on the 3rd day of April 1833, Corresponding with the 14th Chyter Sood Sumbut or Vikramajet Era 1889, Salbahan 1755, Fusley 1242, Soorsun 1233, and 13th Zilkad, 1248, of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Owners of Goods and Articles subject to certain Customs and Duties at the Ports under this Presidency are enabled to evade the payment thereof by resorting to Foreign Ports, situated within the Limits of this Presidency, and whereas it is expedient, in order that the Public Revenue be preserved from loss which may arise from such evasion, that the whole Customs and Duties leviable upon such Goods at the British Port nearest to the said Foreign Ports be imposed upon Goods so passing into or from the interior, and whereas it is expedient that Salt imported into the British Territory from Foreign States, whether such Salt be the produce of that State or imported therein, shall be liable to a Duty beyond that to which it is at present subject.

The following Rules have therefore been enacted by the authority of the Governor in Council with the sanction of the Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants Trading to the East Indies, and with the approbation of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, and shall have effect from the 1st day of July next.

Collectors of Land Revenue to establish Chokies on the frontiers of Foreign States having Ports on the Coast.

SECTION I.—Clause 1.—It shall be competent to the Collectors of Land Revenue or other Officer, to whom the Collection of Land Customs may be entrusted for the purpose herein after mentioned to establish with the sanction of the Governor in Council in addition to or in place of any Chokies for the Collection of Land Customs now existing, certain Chokies at such places as may be found expedient upon, or near the Frontiers of any Foreign States, whether Native or European having Ports or Establishments upon the Line of Coast within the Limits of the Presidency of Bombay.

Such Chokies may be removed with the sanction of the Governor in Council.

Clause 2nd.—It shall be lawful for the Collector or other Officer as aforesaid, at any time, with the sanction of the Governor in Council, to change the station of any such Chokee or Chokies, and to remove them or to establish additional ones, when and whenever it shall be found expedient for the purposes mentioned in this Regulation to do so.

Customs and Duties to be collected at them according to the Rates and Rules of the nearest British Port.

SECTION II. Clause 1st—At these Chokies and also at such Chokies as may be already established, on or near the said Frontiers, Customs and Duties shall be collected on all Goods imported through such Foreign Ports and proceeding thence into the interior of the country and also on those proceeding from the interior for export at such Foreign Ports which Customs and Duties shall be calculated according to the Rates and Rules prevalent at the British Ports nearest to such Port of the said Foreign State.

In addition to any Land Customs and Transit Duties leviable.

Clause 2nd.—Wherever Land Customs or Transit Duties are already leviable at such Chokies, previously established, the said Duties described in the preceding Clause shall be levied in addition, to such Land Customs and Transit Duties,

Clause 3*rd*.—It shall be competent to Government to determine, generally or in respect to each Frontier Station, the British Port that is to be considered the nearest to that of the Foreign State.

Government will determine the nearest British Port.

SECTION III.—All Goods liable to the Customs and Duties prescribed in the preceding Section, which may be found within the British Frontier, and which cannot be proved to have paid the said Customs and Duties, shall be confiscated.

Penalty for Goods not paying the said Customs and Duties.

SECTION IV.—Clause 1*st*.—All Salt imported into the Bombay Territories through the Ports of any Foreign State, or which may have been Manufactured within the Territories of such State, and thence exported in Land into the British Territories, shall be subject to a Duty of 75 Reas or Three Annas per Surat Maund, to be levied at the Chokies aforesaid, in addition to the usual Land Customs and Transit Duties (if any) usually there leviable and all such Salt found within the British Frontier, and which cannot be proved to have paid the aforesaid Customs and Duties, shall be confiscated,

Salt when to be subject to payment of Duty at such Chokies.

Clause 2*nd*.—As considerable trouble and inconvenience may arise from the Actual Measurement of the Salt thus brought by Land across the Frontier, it shall be competent in Government, should it deem it necessary to determine and fix a rate per Bullock Load or other description of Carriage equivalent to that herein fixed of 75 Reas or Three Annas per Surat Maund, with the proviso however that it shall always be optional with the imported, to pay the Duty on Actual Measurement instead of adopting the rate so fixed.

Mode in which with the Proviso of the importer the calculation of the Duty may be facilitated.

SECTION V.—Seizures and Confiscations made by virtue of this Regulation shall be conducted and determined in the manner described in the existing Regulations for the realization of the Custom Revenue, and the provisions of such Regulations in regard to evasion or non-payment of Duties, and to the disposal of Goods in such cases, are hereby declared applicable to Goods or Articles stopped under this Enactment.

Seizures and Confiscations how to be conducted.

REGULATION V. OF 1833.

(SUPPLEMENT IV TO REGULATION XVI. of 1827.)

A REGULATION for declaring all Hereditary District and Village Officers, when entrusted by virtue of their Offices with the charge or collection of the public money, to be officers of receipt and liable to certain penalties for embezzlement, and for providing for the recovery of public money from such officers—for extending the provisions of Clauses 2, 3, 4, and 5. Section XI Regulation XVI of 1827 to certain native officers on the Collector's Esatblishment, and for admitting the employment of Deputies of Hereditary District Officers in other cases than those laid down in Section XVIII Regulation XVI of 1827.—PASSED by the Right Honorable the Governor in Council on the Seventeenth day of July 1833, corresponding with the 30*th Assad Vud Sumbut or Vikramajet Era* 1889, Salivahn 1755, Fusley 1243, Soorsun 1234, and 29*th Suffer*, 1249 of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is essential to the security and good management of the Public Revenue that all Officers, whether holding their Offices hereditarily or otherwise, who may be entrusted with the charge or collection of the public money, should be liable to the penalties of embezzlement, and that demands on them for public money should be enforced in the same manner as those on Officers of the Collector's Establishment; that all Officers on the Collector's Establishment, employed in the settlement of the Revenue, should be liable to the provisions of Clauses 2, 3, 4 and 5, Section XI Regulation

REGULATION VI. A. D. 1833.

(SUPPLEMENT VI TO REGULATION XVII. of 1827.)

A REGULATION for reducing the term of enjoyment of Land required by Sections XXXV and XXXVI Regulation XVII A. D. 1827, to constitute a title to exemption from the payment of Land Revenue, the same being also applicable to Vechania and Gerania lands which have been exempted by Regulation X. A. D. 1831, from the exception previously in force with regard to them.—PASSED by the Right Honorable the Governor in Council of Bombay on the 31*st day of July* 1833, Corresponding with the 15*th Sharawan Sood Sumbut or Vikramajet Era* 1889, Salivahan 1755, Fusley 1243, Soorsun 1234, and 14*th Rubee-ul-avul* 1249, of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it having been found inconvenient in practice to adjust Titles to Land not paying Revenue to Government held on the claim of possession for so long a period as sixty years, which by the existing Regulations is required to confer a prescriptive right, it has been deemed expedient to reduce the term, and the following Rules have therefore been enacted to take effect from the date of promulgation.

30 years substituted for 60 years as the terms required to confer a title to hold land wholly or partially exempt from payment of Revenue.

SECTION I.—In modification of such parts of Clauses 2nd and 3rd, Section XXXV, Clauses 1st and 2nd, Section XXXVI, Regulation XVII, Chapter IX, A. D. 1827, as prescribed 60 years as the term of possession of Land, wholly or partially exempt from the payment of Revenue required to confer a Title, it is herely declared that possession session such as is therein contemplated for a period of thirty years shall constitute a Title of the same nature as possession for sixty years previous to the promulgation of this Regulation.

Exceptions.

Clause 2nd.—Provided however that the above Rule shall not apply to Sirkar Lands alienated since the British Government obtained possession of the country, and without its permission; nor to Lands occupied by private individuals on mortgage or other Bonds or Deeds containing a specific agreement, according to the terms of which they may continue to be enforced.

Clause 3rd.—Neither shall the above Rule be deemed to apply to grants made without the authority of the Peishwa since A. D. 1803, regarding Territory ceded by, or conquered from that authority, nor to Jagheer or other Lands held on Service Tenure, which are declared to be resumable at the pleasure of Government under the forms laid down in Clause 1st, Section XXXVIII, Regulation XVII, A. D 1827, it being understood that the expression used in the said Clause, vizt. "under the general Rules" meant such Rules as Government may think proper to issue from time to time.

REGULATION VII. A. D. 1833.

(SUPPLEMENT VI. TO REGULATION XIII. A. D. 1827.)

A REGULATION for modifying the provisions in force, for the Trial and Punishment of Persons exceeding twelve in number assembling for Riotous or Rebellious purposes not amounting to Treason, and for defining the Tribunal before which persons committing offences under the designation of Unlawful Attempts to alter the established Laws, or disturbing the peace of foreign states may be tried.—PASSED by the Right Honorable the Governor in Council of Bombay on the 31*st day of July* 1833, Corresponding with the 15*th Sharavan Sood Sumbut or Vikramajet Era* 1889, Salivahan 1755, Fusley 1243, Soorsun 1234 and 14*th Rubee-ul-avul* 1249, of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the existing Regulations provide for the Trial of persons charged with offences of a Political nature, before a Special Court now held by a Judicial Commissioner, and render persons exceeding twelve in number assembling for Riotous or Rebellious purposes not amounting to Treason, liable to the punishment of Rebellion, and whereas these offences are sometimes of such minor importance as not to require an extraordinary Tribunal of the above description, nor to deserve to be punished as Rebellion, it is judged expedient to modify so much of the Regulations in force as bears on this.—The following Rules are in consequence passed to take effect from the date of promulgation.

Modifying Clause 1st Section XXIV of Regulation XIII of 1827.

SECTION I.—In modification of Clause 1st, Section XXIV, Regulation XIII of 1827, it shall be competent for for the Governor in Council to direct the Trial of offences contemplated in Sections XIII, XIV and XV of Regulation XIV of 1827, to be held before the ordinary Tribunals.

Riot.

SECTION II.—Whenever offences of Riot by tumultuous assemblies shall occur, such being proved before the Magistrate as not coming within the meaning of Section XIII Regulation XIV of 1827, as tending to Rebellion, such riotous assembling shall from henceforth be considered a Riot and Breach of the Peace.

Its punishment.

SECTION III.—The punishment of Riot is ordinary imprisonment, not exceeding 10 years, or fine, or both combined.

REGULATION VIII. A. D. 1833.

SUPPLEMENT VII of REGULATION XIII. of A. D. 1827.

A REGULATION for modifying Section IX. of Regulation III. 1830, and introducing a more suitable arrangement for the performance of the annual Circuit by the Judicial Commissioners.—PASSED by the Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council of Bombay on the 25th day of September 1833, corresponding with the 12*th Bhadrapud Sood Sumbut, or Vikramajet Era* 1889, Salivahan 1755, Fusley 1243, Soorsun 1234, and 11*th Jammadee-ul-avul* 1249, of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS experience has shewn that the existing division of the annual Circuit of the Judicial Commissioners into two parts is insufficient in as much as the great extent of the charge devolving on the Judicial Commissioner for the Deckan and Southern Mahratta Country renders it impracticable for this Officer to devote his attention to every part of the division that should be visited. It is inconsequence deemed expedient to introduce an arrangement, under which the whole of the Territory Subordinate to the Sudder Foujdaree Udalut, shall be periodically visited in a regular manner; the following Rules are therefore passed to be in force from the date of promulgation.

Sect. IX. Reg. III. A. D. 1830 modified.

II. Section IX. Regulation III. of 1830, is modified agreeably to the provisions contained in the following Sections.

The divisions of the annual circuit increased.

III. The annual Circuit shall be devided into three parts, and a Judicial Commissioner appointed to each division, by the Governor in Council.

IV. The

The districts comprised in the first.

IV. The first or Goojerat and Conkan division shall comprise the Zillas of Surat, Ahmedabad, and the Conkan with exception of the Detached Station of Rutnagherie.

The districts comprised in the second.

The second or Southern Mahratta Country division shall comprise the Zilla of Dharwar and the Detached Stations of Rutnagherie in the Conkan Zilla, and Sholapoor in the Poona Zilla.

The districts comprised in the third.

The third or Deckan and Kandeish division shall comprise the Zillas of Poona, (with exception of the Detached Station of Sholapoor) and Ahmednuggur.

V. The general Circuit shall be performed in the following manner.

The periods to be occupied by the circuits respectively.

The Judicial Commissioner for Goojerat and the Conkan, shall set out on the 1st day of December visiting Thanna, Surat, Broach, Kaira, and Ahmedabad: and in alternate years Dholka, Dundookha, and Gogo, returning to the seat of the Court previous to the 1st day of April.

The Judicial Commissioner for the Southern Mahratta Country shall set out on the 1st day of April visiting Dhawar and such of the principal places in that Zilla as he may think fit. In separate and alternate years he shall visit the Detached Stations of Rutnagherie in the Conkan Zilla, and Sholapoor in the Poona Zilla, returning to the seat of the Court previous to the 1st day of August.

The Judicial Commissioner for the Deckan and Khandeish shall set out on the 1st day of August visiting Poona and Ahmednuggur, and such places in these Zillas as he may think fit. In alternate years he shall visit the Detached Station of Dhoolia, returning to the seat of the Court previous to the 1st day of December.

The stay of the commissioners at stations regulated.

VI. Judicial Commissioners are not to prolong their stay at the Sudder Stations of Zillahs, beyond a period of fifteen or twenty days, and ten days at a Detached Station, unless detained by trials or urgent business that may require their presence on the spot.

A separate notification to be sent in to government by each commissioner on commencing his circuit.

VII. Previous to commencing each portion of Circuit, Judicial Commissioners shall notify to Government, through the Secretary in the Judicial Department, the order in which they intend to proceed, with the dates on which they may expect to reach each Station to be visited, ed, in order that the same may be publicly announced in the Government Gazette. This is intended to be distinct from the notification to be made to the Local Officers on their tours, under the Regulations to be promulgated in the several Zillahs.

REGULATION IX. A. D. 1833.

SUPPLEMENT VIII. to REGULATION XIII. of A. D. 1827.

A REGULATION to provide for the reception in the Gaols under this Presidency, of Prisoners sentenced by Courts of Justice and Tribunals acting under British Superintendence, other than those provided for in the existing Regulations.—PASSED by the Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council of Bombay on the 30*th day of October* 1833, corresponding with the 2*nd Asvin Vud Sumbut, or Vikramajet Era* 1889, Salivahn 1755, Fusley 1243, Soorsun 1234, and 16*th Jammadee-ul-akhur* 1249, of the Hijree.

Preamble,

WHEREAS it has been deemed expedient to sanction and provide, by a legislative enactment, for the reception, in the Gaols of this Presidency, of Prisoners sentenced by Courts of Justice, or other Tribunals, however denominated, acting under British Superintendence beyond the Jurisdiction of the ordinary Courts established within the Bombay Territory, when the Governor in Council may be pleased to direct the same; the following Rules have therefore been enacted, to have effect from the date of promulgation.

Government empowered to direct the execution of a sentence of imprisonment passed by any Court of Justice under British Superintendence, to be carried into effect in any Gaol under this Presidency.

SECTION I.—Clause 1*st.*—It shall be competent for the Governor in Council, whenever he may consider it necessary or expedient to do so, to direct, by an order through the Secretary to Government in the Judicial Department, that the Confinement of any Prisoner under Sentence of any Court of Justice, or other authority wheresoever situated, being under British Superintendence, dence, beyond the ordinary Jurisdiction, be carried into effect in any of the Zilla or Subsidiary Gaols of this Presidency.

A warrant or descriptive list to be furnished as authority for execution of the sentence.

Clause 2*d*.—A Warrant, or in its absence a descriptive list, containing the name, age, cast, offence and sentence of the Prisoner, shall be transmitted with the Prisoners to the Judge or chief authority in charge of the Gaol, and the same shall be sufficient authority for the fulfilment of the said sentence.

To be returnable to Government.

Clause 3*d*.—The execution of sentences so transmitted shall be certified to the Secretary to Government in the Judicial Department.

Prison discipline.

SECTION II.—Prisoners in Confinement under the above Section shall be subject to the same Rules and Prison Discipline as are in force for Prisoners under the Regulations.

REGULATION III. A. D. 1834.

Supplement V. to Regulation XX. of 1827.

A REGULATION for abolishing the existing Town Duty at the Presidency of Bombay with the Drawback thereof, and for imposing in lieu thereof a Fixed Duty on certain articles.—PASSED by the Governor General of India in Council on the 11*th day of July* 1834, corresponding with the 15*th Assad Sood Sumbut or Vikramajet Era* 1890, Salevahan 1756, Fusley 1244, Soorsun 1235, and 3*rd Rubbee-ul-avul* 1250 of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Drawback of the Four per cent Town Duty collected at the Presidency of Bombay under the provisions of the Regulation I. of 1803 and Regulation I. of 1810, has been found to be productive of great inconvenience and abuse, alike hurtful to the Public Revenue; the interests of the fair trader and the morals of the community in consequence of the frauds practised, and the trouble and delay experienced in the adjustment of the necessary accounts, the following Rules have therefore been enacted by the authority of the Governor General of India in Council, to have effect from the date of promulgation at the Presidency of Bombay.

Rescinding part of Section I. of Regulation XX. of 1827.

SECTION I.—Such parts of Regulation I. of 1803 and Regulation I. of 1810 as have been retained in force by Regulation XX. of 1827, Section I. are hereby rescinded.

Imposing a rate of Duty of 1½ per cent on certain Imports.

SECTION II.—A Duty at the rate of (1½) one and a half per cent shall be levied on Import into the Island of Bombay, of the articles enumerated in Appendix A. in addition to the established Sea Customs, and under the same Rules and Regulations, as are or may be made applicable to the collection of the latter.

Drawback allowable only on exportation to the United Kingdom in British Bottoms.

SECTION III.—No Drawback of the Duty imposed in the preceding Section, will be allowed, except on Exportation to the United Kingdom in British Bottoms, of any of the articles subject thereto, in which case such an amount of Drawback will, if applied for, at the period of Exportation, but not otherwise, be allowed, as will reduce the total Duty receivable by Government to (2½) two and half per cent.

REGULATION IV. A. D. 1834.

SUPPLEMENT VI. TO REGULATION XX. OF 1827.

A REGULATION fixing an uniform rate of Customs to be levied on Cotton-wool throughout the Territories dependent on the Bombay Presidency.—PASSED by the Governor General of India in Council, on the 11th day of July 1834, corresponding with the 5th Assad Sood Sumbut or Vikramajet Era 1890, Salevahan 1756, Fusley 1244, Soorsun 1235, and 3rd Rubee-ul-avul 1250, of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the diversity in the rates of Duty now levied on Cotton-wool at different Ports and Places within the Bombay Territory, is found to hold out a great temptation to fraud and to be productive of much trouble and delay to the Mercantile Community in the recovery of the Drawbacks to which this article is entitled on Exportation to the United Kingdom, the following Rules have therefore been enacted by the Governor General of India in Council, to take effect withing the Territories subject to the Presidency of Bombay, from the date of promulgation.

Existing Duties on Cotton-wool abolished, and 5 per cent on the Tariff Valuation substituted.

SECTION I.—The existing Duties now levied upon Cotton-wool at the several Ports and Places within the Presidency of Bombay, whether in the shape of Sea or Land Customs, or Transit Duties, are hereby abolished, and in lieu thereof Sea Customs at an uniform rate of 5 per cent on the Tariff Valuation, with the usual advance are henceforth to be collected on Export or Import of Cotton by Sea.

Cotton exported from a sea subordinate port free of Duty, the exporter furnishing security for the payment of it in Bombay.

SECTION II.—Cotton shipped from a Subordinate Port, for Exportation to Bombay, shall be permitted to be so Exported free of all payment of Customs, on the Exporter furnishing Security to produce the requisite Certificate of Import and payment of the Duty at Bombay within a reasonable period, to be fixed for each Port by Government.

The Tariff Valuation fixed under Clause 2d Section II. Regulation XX. A. D. 1827 for Bombay extended to all subordinate ports.

SECTION III.—The Tariff Valuation of Cotton, as fixed for the Port of Bombay under Clause 2nd, Section II, Regulation XX, of 1827, shall be applicable to all Ports and Places under this Presidency.

Customs payable but once, a Certificate of having paid at one port exempting from payment at another,

SECTION IV.—The aforesaid Customs shall be collected once only, and a Certificate of payment at any one Port shall exempt from further payment within the Bombay Territories.

Town Duties on Cotton leviable when the Cotton has not paid Customs.

SECTION V.—Cotton brought into any Town wherein Town Duties are leviable, is to be liable to such Duties whenever it may not have paid the aforesaid Customs of 5 per cent.

By order of the Governor General of India in Council.
W. H. MACNAGHTEN,
Offg. Chief Secy.

REGULATION V. A. D. 1834.

SUPPLEMENT VII. TO REGULATION XX. A. D. 1827.

A REGULATION for commuting the present Tax upon Metal-ware of Surat into a Tax on Import of the Raw Metals, and also subjecting Piece Goods, the manufacture of China and other places, to the Local Tax called Bujajkhana.—PASSED by the Governor General of India in Council, on the 11*th day of July* 1834, corresponding with the 5th Assad Sood Sumbut or Vikramajet Era 1890, Salevahn 1756. Fusley 1244, Soorsun 1235, and 3rd Rubee-ul-avul 1250, of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS there exists in the City of Surat a Tax upon the manufacture of Copper and Brass-ware, which it is expedient, for the safety of the Revenue, as well as for the convenience of the manufactures, to transfer to Imports, of the Raw Metal used therein; and whereas it is expedient to bring within the operation of the existing Local Tax upon Imports of fine Cotton and Silk Cloths and Stuffs, the produce of Europe or of Bengal, Cloths and Stuffs of the same description, the manufacture of China or other places. The following rates have therefore been passed by the Governor General of India in Council, to have effect within the Territories subject to the Presidency of Bombay, from the date of promulgation.

Duty on Import of Copper, Tutenague, & Lead, into Surat.

SECTION I.—A Duty of one Rupee and two quarters per Surat Maund shall henceforth be levied on all Copper, and one quarter of a Rupee per Surat Maund on all Tutenague and Lead, Imported into the City of Surat.

Tax on the manufacture of Metal-ware in Surat, abolished.

SECTION II.—Clause 1*st.*—The Tax of one Rupee and three quarters per Maund on the manufacture of Metal ware in the City of Surat, is hereby abolished.

Likewise on Export.

Clause 2*nd.*—And henceforth Copper and Brass-ware and other Metal-ware, manufactured in the Town of Surat, shall not be liable to the charge of Customs or Duty on Exportation.

Former Customs on Import continued.

Clause 3rd.—All Customs heretofore leviable on the Import of Metal-ware into Surat, shall not be affected by this Regulation, but continue in full force.

Piece Goods the manufacture of China & other places subjected to the Tax called Bujajkhana.

SECTION III.—The Local Tax called Bujajkhana, of one and a half per cent on White, and one per cent on Coloured Piece Goods, the produce of Europe and Bengal, is hereby extended to Piece Goods of the same description, the manufacture of China or other places.

By order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council.
W. H. MACNAGHTEN,
Offg. Chief Secy.

REGULATION VI. A. D. 1834.

SUPPLEMENT I. TO REGULATION III. A. D. 1827.

A REGULATION providing for the occasional adjournment of the Courts of Civil Judicature under the Presidency of Bombay.—PASSED by the Governor General of India in Council, on the 19*th of August* 1834, corresponding with the 15*th Sharavan Sood Sumbut or Vikramajet Era* 1890, Salevahan 1756, Fusley 1244, Soorsun 1235, and 13*th Rubee-ul-akhur* 1250, of the Hijree.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it has been found expedient for the general convenience of Courts of Civil Judicature, as well as of the Native Officers, Establishment and Suitors attending them, that a continuous period of vacation should be provided for, in addition to the several Holidays sanctioned by Section I. Regulation III. A D. 1827, whenever the same can be done with convenience to the public business, the following Rules have accordingly been passed to be in force from the date of promulgation.

The Sudder Dewanee Adawlut empowered to adjourn their own Court, and to sanction the adjournment of Subordinate Courts for a period not exceeding Six Weeks in each year.

SECTION I.—In addition to the powers already vested in the Sudder Dewanee Adawlut under Section I. Regulation III. A. D. 1827, the Judges of that Court, when it shall be satisfied that no inconvenience will attend the same from arrear of business or other cause, are hereby empowered at such time as may be most generally convenient to adjourn their own Court, and permit the Civil Courts under their jurisdiction to adjourn their respective Courts for a period of Six Weeks in each year.

No adjournment to take place during the visit of the visiting Judicial Commissioner nor during the Circuit of Session Judges at the detached stations.

SECTION II.—Such adjournments shall however in no instance take place in any Zillah during the period to which the tour of the Judicial Commissioners may extend, nor in regard to Detached Stations during the Circuits of the Session Judges.

Notifications of adjournments to be published in the Government Gazette.

SECTION III.—Due Notifications of all adjournments under this Regulation, shall be made by the Sudder Dewanee Adawlut, to the Judicial Secretary to Government, for the purpose of being published in the Government Gazette.

By order of His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council,
W. H. MACNAGHTEN,
Offg. Chief Secy.
